SSF to Pioneer Narcotics 'Classes'?

The South San Francisco Unified School district is inevstigating the setting up special two-hour evening workshop for students caught with narcotics in their possession, Sheldon Winston, the district's representative on the San Mateo County Narcotic Advisory committee, reported to the committee last week.

Winston made his comments after Dr. Stanford B. Rossiter, commission chairman, remarked, "I am always impressed with the way children are impressed with traffic penalties," and noted that most students are careful to obey traffic laws, fearing they may loose their driver's licenses and driving privileges.

Under proposed plans, Winston reported, student narcotic offenders would be indefinitely suspended from school and would be required to attend the night classes with at least one parent, where they would be given pharmacological information on the dangers of drug abuse.

"Let the kids know they aren't just going to get suspended for a time when they are caught with marijuana on campus," Winston suggested.

Dr. Rossiter pointed out that about a year ago Loren A. Beckley, county chief probation officer, had recommended "family courts" that would handle drug and other family related problems in a similar way that traffic problems are handled in traffic courts.

Beckley said that legislation creating such courts had been proposed for some time, and would handle the "whole broad gamut" of family problems, including divorce.

One educator at yesterday's committee meeting reported that he has seen "quite a number of children come to school so stoned they couldn't write their names during the first period."

Dr. Rossiter, citing the constantly changing narcotics situation, maintained there is a need for "a central depositary" to collect current information, and it was agreed to set up a subcommittee to contact various agencies such as school districts, hospitals, physicians and police departments to see if current narcotics abuse information can be obtained quickly to be used on the local level.

Lillian Blackford, business administrator of the county's health and welfare department, pointed out that information collected by the state is so often out of date by the time it is returned to the local level it is virtually useless.

Dr. Rossiter suggested that the county hire a clerk to compile current information, and said there is a need for the Narcotics Advisory committee to issue an annual report.

"There are bits and pieces of information lying around, and we need a subcommittee to set up a central depot," Dr. Rossiter asserted. Miss Blackford and Frank Peters, executive director of the committee, were instructed to prepare a list of organizations that could obtain information for the committee.

Dr. Rossiter justified the need for an annual report so citizens will know the annual cost of drug abuse. He estimated that a quarter of a million dollars is being spent weekly in the Bay Area alone for narcotics.

During a discussion of related crimes, Capt. George Bold of the Redwood City police department pointed out that when a narcotics raid is made, officers almost always find a houseful of stereo sets, TV sets and other merchandise which users have stolen to finance their habits.

Dr. Rossiter cited the additional costs of jailing and hospitalizing users.

The committee reviiwed again a suggested five-phase program, which would:

1. Set up "detoxicatication units" of 12 beds in San Mateo County General hospital.
2. Set up a ward of some 20 beds for narcotics users who have acute psychological problems.
3. Set up "half-way houses" for group living of individuals trying to break the drug habit.
4. Set up "drop-in centers" such as the "Damien House" at 218 Tilton Avenue in San Mateo, where persons could make "real progress" in getting away from the narcotics scene.
5. The setting up of a total community program, which would "feed back" information to the public and train people to educate others of the dangers of drug abuse.

UNION RECOGNITION

D.C. Sets Guidelines For City Employes

Daly City has drafted a 22-page resolution spelling out the city's relationship with public employees' organizations and providing for the addministration of employer-employee relations regarding terms of employment, wages and working hours.

The proposed resolution was drawn up by the city following passage of a new state law dealing with such matters. The law went into effect last January.

City manager Edward Frank this week handed the draft over to city attorney Albert Polonsky for review and comment and at the same time gave a copy to Frank Gillis, business representative of the Daly City Municipal Employees' Union (AFSCME) for his comments.

What the draft boils down to is: The city now "officially" recognizes the right of its employees to form, join and participate in various unions or similar employee organizations. At the same time it points out that employees will have the right to refuse to join or participate in such activities.

Both sides must agree that whichever course employee take, they will not be intimidated in any way or discriminated against.

The city maintains the exclusive right, under the proposed resolution, to run its own departments free from outside interference by any and all organizations and to "set the standard of service to be offered to the public." They will also determine who is suitable for employment in each city department.

Annual Egg Hunt Saturday in D.C.

The Annual Easter Egg Hunt sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department will be held Saturday at 11 a.m.

Hunts are designed for toddlers through the fourth grade, and children will hunt in respective groups.

Egg Hunts will be held at Midway School, George Washington School, Marchbanks Parks, Westmoor High School, Skyline School, F. D. Roosevelt School, Westlake Park and Colma School.

Children are asked to attend the park or school nearest their home.

All participants should take their own baskets or sacks. Prizes will be given to children who find specially marked eggs.

Parents or other adults who want to assist with the hunts should call the Recreation Department.

A Freeway Link Quietly Opened

The Cabrillo Freeway linking Junipero Serra Freeway with Skyline Boulevard was quietly opened to traffic last week, completing a year-long project that cost some $1.9 million.

The final link between St. Francis Boulevard and the Skyline route will not be undertaken for another year, a Daly City spokesman predicted Tuesday.

This will be an elaborate interchange costing about $3.5 million and will eliminate the present roundabout traffic route between the two main thoroughways.

The new route (Route One) will also allow motorists to take advantage of several on-off ramps between the two points, including the Serramonte Shopping Center and Clarinda Avenue. Two major structures — an undercrossing at Clarinda and another at Southgate — were also part of the overall project.

Daly City City Engineer Arthur Reschke predicted the new route will take considerable traffic off both Eastmoor and Alemany avenues and route motorists over the new throughway.

Board Is Sharply Split on Transit

Feelings ran high on Monday as a sharply split board of the West Bay Rapid Transit Authority voted to submit a bus transit proposal to the electorate June 10.

Chairman William R. Lawson, who favored a more elaborate ballet measure, was so upset that he threatened to resign the chairmanship.

Lawson, mayor of Menlo Park, said the stand taken by the majority of the board made him feel "utterly ridiculous."

The vote for the bus system, designated Plan B, was 4 to 3.

Three alternative transit plans for San Mateo County had been submitted to the West Bay board by its consultants. Plan B calls for a county-wide express bus system with feeder lines connecting with the existing Southern Pacific rail service. Plan C adds to the bus service an extension of the Bay Area Rapid Transit District (BART) from Daly City to San Bruno and International Airport. Plan D includes the features of Plans B and C and adds the construction of a rail transit system (BART or other) and adds the construction of a rail transit system (BART or other) from San Bruno to Santa Clara County, with the line closely paralleling the SP tracks.

The task of the West Bay directors yesterday was to choose one of the alternates as a "master plan" to submit to the voters. Continued existence of the West Bay Authority depends upon voter approval of a master plan by the end of June. If the June 10 election fails, the Authority will cease to exist as of the end of that month.

There was general agreement among the directors yesterday that Plan D would be desirable as a true master transit plan for the county. Those who voted for the Plan B concept, however, expressed doubt that the more costly proposal would

Crestmoor Science Projects in 'Fair'

By DON GRIERSON

Among the scientific exhibits at the Sixteenth Annual San Francisco Bay Area Science Fair at Golden Gate Park April 12-16 will be four advanced projects which have evolved from a special pilot program at Crestmoor High School in San Bruno.

The exhibits, an "electromagnetic ion pump," an involved sugar fermentation experiment, a device to measure the effects of air pressure upon sound waves, and a digital computer system, are products of the school's special "science research" class.

Begun last year as an offshoot of the Crestmoor Science Society, the special class is designed for exceptionally gifted science students. Students are accepted by "invitation only," and only four youths are currently taking the class for credit, according to Calvin Person, one of three teachers involved in the project.

"We have been encouraging students with high ability in science to take part in advanced studies since Crestmoor opened in 1962," Person said.

"Toward this end, we founded a science initially, but found the results were unsatisfactory because of the great amount of time spent on such unrelated matters as the keeping of minutes and parliamentary procedure."

Two years ago, the science club concept was abandoned, and the Crestmoor Science Society was formed.

Members of the Science Society devote all their meeting time to discussion of ideas, Person said, "to the exclusion of everything else."

"No one really felt right about treating scientific discussion within the contest of a club," he said. "The Science Society is patterned after the concept of a scieentific enterprise."

One of the principal problems encountered by the science so-

MINI-BIKE SMASHED — A half-ton pickup truck driven by Wayne E. Allen, 768 Niantic Avenue, Daly City, smashed a mini-bike in a collision at the corner of Knowles and Santa Barbara streets Saturday morning. The rider of the mini-bike, Earl Pahatter, 13, of San Francisco, was under treatment in the intensive care unit at Mary's Help Hospital with internal injuries, lacerations and two broken legs. Police have been waging a constant battle to keep the small motorbikes off city streets because of an increase in such accidents. (Post Photo)

Rescuer Is Honored In Pacifica

Coastside Region Red Cross held a noon board of commissioners' meeting recently at the Golden Coach Restaurant in Pacifica.

Pacifica Police Chief Neil Tremaine, chairman, presented a Red Cross certificate of recognition to Karl Duane Leach, also of Pacifica.

Leach had entered a burning home several weeks ago, to rescue a mother and child.

As part of the Red Cross swim fitness program, four police officers were presented with cards for having completed the first 10 of a projected 50-mile swim. They are Sgt. Roy Karlzewski and Officers Anthony Guardino, Ray Manley and Joseph Santos.

This was the first board meeting attended by newly appointed members, who include Cameron Thomas, principal of Pescadero High School; Michael Silbeestein, attorney, who counsels Legal Aid clients one day a week at the Red Cross office, 80 Eureka Square, Pacifica; William Stephens, Half Moon PG&E manager; Dr. Joseph Smith, Half Moon Bay optometrist; Morris Bell of El Granada and Mark Savage of Pacifica.

cussion is the right of employees to meet and discuss such matters as wages, hours and fringe benefits.

Under section 5 of the resolution, procedures for meeting and conferring "in good faith" has been spelled out. It flatly states that both sides will meet and confer on wages, hours and fringe benefits.

But it also explains that the city will refuse to talk about those matters pre-empted by state and federal laws. Amendments to the proposal, itself, have also been excluded from such meets.

Items within the scope of representation as outlined in the resolution (but not limited to general fringe benefit items and hours and working conditions) are considered appropriate subjects for discussion—during the period between 30 and 90 days prior to submission of the annual city budget.

Normally, June 1 is the budget submission date.

St. Andrew's Catholic Church Tells of Services

Easter Week services for St. Andrew's Roman Catholic Church of Daly City will be held in the gymnasium of Westmoor High School.

The celebration will begin with a community meal at 7 p.m. on Holy Thursday in the school's cafeteria.

This community meal is a custom in many parishes where as Paschal Meal is held before the celebration of the Liturgy on Holy Thursday evening.

It is a "getting-together" of friends and neighbors, sharing thoughts and food. Because of St. Andrew's limited facilities, the families attending are asked to take their own meal. Coffee will be served. For those not attending the community meal, the Mass of the Lord's Supper will begin in the gymnasium at 8 p.m.

On Good Friday, special devotions will begin at noon. The Liturgical Service of the Passion of Our Lord will be at 2 p.m. During the three hours, there will be dramatic readings, Stations of the Cross, and slides in the mood of Good Friday.

At 10:30 p.m. on Holy Saturday is to begin the Easter Vigil, the most beautiful and oldest liturgies of the Church.

The Easter Vigil Service is to include blessing of the Paschal Fire, Blessing of the Baptismal Font, and, following the Baptisms, the first mass of Easter.

Easter Sunday masses will be at 7, 8, 9:15, 10:30, 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. in the gymnasium.

First Lutheran Church Sets Sunrise Services

Easter Sunday at First Lutheran Church, South San Francisco, will be celebrated by several services beginning with Sunrise Services at 6:15 a.m., when Rev. Martin Wyneken will present a sermon on "The Cross To Glory."

An Easter Breakfast will be served by the men of the church council form 7 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Sunday School will have special Easter emphasis, with Superintendent Edwin Knight doing the planning for this. Time of Sunday School will be the regular hour of 9:30 a.m.

Regular Easter festival services will be held at 8:15 a.m. and 11 a.m. with Reverend Wyneken's sermon topic to be "Overcome or Overcoming." The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Alvin Klipfel will sing "Instruments Waken and Publish Your Gladness" by Buxtehude. This number features a string group plus the regular choir.

A special feature on Good Friday evening will be a short Cantata which is called "The Seven Words of Christ From The Cross" by Weinhorst. Gene Crotty will be the narrator.

CRESTMOOR GRAD

SAN ANTONIO — Airman Paul G. Gauct, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reno Gauci, 740 Masson Avenue, San Bruno, has completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex. He has been assigned to Sheppard AFB, Tex., for training in aircraft maintenance. Airman Gauci is a 1968 graduate of Crestmoor High School.

Cong. B'nai Israel Rites For Passover

Passover, commemorating the Exodus of the children of Israel led by Moses from the land of Egypt, will begin at sundown today.

Services will be held at Congregation B'nai Israel, Colma, on Thursday at 9 a.m.

In the evening at 7:30 a Congregational Seder will be held at the Templehouse.

The second day of Passover will also be observed with services on April 4 at 9 a.m.

That evening, at 8:30 p.m. Sabbath Services will be held in which children of the Hebrew School will participate in honor of Passover.

To be called to the pulpit for Hebrew and English readings are June Arbitter, Mark Cleaner, Rachel Dobrow, Glen Feld, Russell Lemesh, David Levy, Ruth Mordokowicz, Leslie Schwarzbach, Glenn Sennett, Martin Stone, Harriet Weiner, Helen Weinrit and Samuel Wright.

The Hebrew School of Congregation B'nai Israel will be recessed in observance of the Passover holiday on April 3, 8 and 10. Regular classes will resume on April 15, according to the principal, Rabbi Solomon A. Shore.

Hope Services Are Announced

The Rev. Armin H. Polster, pastor of the Hope Lutheran Church, 55 San Fernando Way, Daly City, will conduct Maundy Thursday communion services at 7:30 p.m. April 3 and Good Friday rites at 1 p.m. April 4. Tennebrae will be observed at 7:30 p.m.

Easter services are to be at 8:30 and 11 a.m.

A special Easter film will be shown at the Sunday school at 9:45 a.m.

Broadmoor Presbyterians Plan Thursday Communion

Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, 377 87th Street, Daly City, will hold Maundy Thursda Communion at 7:30 p.m., with the church choir singing the anthems, "Ave Verum" by Mozart, and "O Sacred Head, Now Wounded," by Bach.

Infant care will be provided.

The Union Good Friday Service will be held at this church form 12 to 3 p.m.

Seven pastors will be participating along with members of their congregations. The meditations will be made upon "The Seven Last Words From the Cross." The public is invited to attend all or portions of the service.

The Easter Sunrise Service will be held at 5:48 a.m. on Mt. Davidson in San Francisco. Dr. Robert M. Young of Calvary Presbyterian Church of San Francisco is to be the speaker.

The Easter Sunday Service will be held at 9:30 and 11 a.m. The choir will sing the anthems, "Christ Is Risen" and "Angels, Roll the Stone Away."

The pastor, the Rev. Herbert C. Tweedie, will preach upon the topic "The Resurrection Story and Assurance."

Infant care is provided.

Sunday school will be held, as usual, at both 9:30 and 11 o'clock.

SSF Minister Selects Topic

First Lutheran Church of South San Francisco will hold Maundy Thursday services at 7:30 p.m. The sermon for the evening will be "Malicious or Merciful."

Good Friday will provide two opportunities for worship.

From 1 to 2 p.m. "The Seven Words From the Cross" will be concentrated upon, and at 7:30 p.m., the sermon The Rev. Martin Wyneken has chosen is "Sorrowing or Satisfied."

Holy Communion will be celebrated on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday evening.

CAMINO GRAD

HONOLULU — Arnold Andreacchi, son of Mrs. Betty Andreacchi of 7 Hermosa Lane, South San Francisco, has been promoted to sergeant in the U.S. Air Force.

DONATION PLAN

Customers Will Decide on Charity

One of the most unusual and imaginative promotional ideas to hit downtown San Bruno in many years will come to light on Thursday, April 17, as members of the Merchants' Division stage their first "Donation Day" program in downtown San Bruno.

Participating members of the retail merchants group have agreed to donate 10 per cent of all sales made on Thursday, April 17, to the nonprofit or charitable organization of their customers' choice.

Any customer making a purchase on that date in one of the participating stores can designate the non-profit or charitable organization they desire on the back side of their sales receipt slip. The slips are then deposited by the customer in special cntainers located in the lobbies of the Bank of America and the Wells Fargo Bank offices or the Chamber of Commerce office in downtown San Bruno.

The Chamber of Commerce will tabulate the sales receipt slips, bill the merchants their share of the 10 per cent donation, and send checks to the non-profit or charitable organizations designated by the individual customers.

Bright red and white "Donation Day" window banners will be displayed by those merchants participating in the one-day event. Purchases must be made and sales receipt slips deposited between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. on April 17 in order to qualify for the 10 per cent donation.

The "Dontion Day" program was conceived as part of the Solicitation Control Program set up by the Chamber of Commerce earlier this year. Many local organizations have solicited San Bruno merchants for dnations of funds or merchandise for their organization fund-raising projects.

Dr. King Tag Day Set

The Southern Christian Leadership Conference, headed by Dr. Ralph David Abernathy, has designated Saturday, April 5, as "Dr. King National Tag Day," commemorating the death of the erstwhile civil rights leader on April 4, 1968, in Memphis, Tenn.

The purpose of the fund-raising drive is to continue the voter registration drive which was begun by Dr. King and to further support and develop the minister's leadership training program which prepares clergyment to continue the non-violent philosophy of Dr. King.

Co-ordinating the local effort will be the Rev. Howard A. Bryant of the Second Baptist Church, Daly City. Youth from the church will be collecting donations and handing out tags at shopping areas.

Broadmoor Area Fate Is Delayed

The ultimate fate of Broadmoor Village and its surrounding territory — 1. Whether it will be incorporated into the county's newest and twentieth city, 2. Whether it will be annexed to Daly City, or, 3 Whether it will be allowed to remain as it is — was put over for three months until June 18 by members of the county's Local Agency Formation Commission Wednesday afternoon.

Commissioners agreed a great deal of additional technical information is needed after expressing doubts that a new city could be operated on a tax rate of 19-cents per $100 of assessed valuation as maintained by proponents of annexation during a lengthy hearing.

While noting that the Colma fire department operates entirely with volunteers and that the Broadmoor police district has only eight paid men and 20 reserves, commission members praised the area for its "espirit de corps," but still expressed doubt that a new city could provide all necessary municipal services at the 19-cent tax rate estimated by A. L. Ickler, president of the Broadmoor Property Owners Association.

Actually, it was pointed out, that the proposed new city would include, in addition to Broadmoor Village, Garden Village, Sterling Park, and unincorporated parts of Colma.

Drawing on their own experience as city councilmen, Maurice K. Hamilton of San Bruno, commission chairman, and William R. Lawson of Menlo Park, expressed disbelief that the 19-cent tax rate could be maintained. They agreed, however, additional technical information is needed, and Mrs. Jean Fassler and James V. Fitzgerald supervisor representatives on the commission, said they would be "receptive" to a request for an emergency allocation to hire a part-time, outside expert in municipal budgets to study the area.

B. Sherman Coffman, executive officer of the commission, is already burdened with such high priority items, commissioners agreed, as studying a proposed annexation to Half Moon Bay and the possible incorporation of East Palo Alto.

Firemen Save Brunan Who Went After Dog

By WILL THOMAS

A San Bruno man, who suffered minor burns and smoke inhalation, was rescued by firemen on Monday after he had re-entered his blazing Princeton Drive home to save his pet dog.

Firemen in San Bruno said the 2:18 a.m. fire still is under investigation. They have been unable to pinpoint the cause of the blaze that rousted occupant Jim Salo, who told firemen he had fallen asleep while watching television in the living room.

The combination of smoke, heat and the barking of his dog awakened Salo, he said.

Neighbors, hearing Salo's shouts, called firemen to the Salo was described by Captai Bolanos as "half way down" at the time they came upon him in the kitchen.

2390 Princeton Drive home, which reportedly just had been sold by Salo.

Salo was alone in the house.

He rushed out of the house, but remembering the dog was inside, Salo dashed back into the house through a side door.

Firemen arrived soon after. While flames shot out the front door, fireman Jim Obranovich and fire Capt. Herman Bolanos battled heat and smoke to enter the kitchen, where they found Salo, still struggling to reach the dog.

He was unable to tell the firemen whether or not others were in the house. Neighbors had explained the man was married and had children, so the firemen began a room-by-room search.

No other persons were found, but the dog — the object of Salo's search — was found beneath a bed.

The dog survived, but the entire house was severely damfamily's pet parakeet did not.

Captain Bolanos said the aged by smoke and heat — "every room in the house," he explained.

Actual flame damage was confined to the living room, dining room and part of the kitchen but the heat melted curtains and light fixtures in other areas, firemen said.

Salo was taken to Peninsula Hospitai for treatment of smoke inhalation, and first degree burns of the head; he was not, however, admitted.

2nd Devil's Slide Stolen Car Wreck

Pacifica firemen, for the second time last week, went down Devil's Slide on Saturday to check out the wreckage of a car spotted from Cabrillo Highway.

They determined that the car was stolen and that there were no occupants. The same was true of the earlier incident last Tuesday morning.

The car today was pushed over the cliff from the highway north of Gray Whale Cove

S.S.F. Marine Wins Award

Marine Sgt. John C. Whitney, son of Mrs. Irene Fowler of South San Francisco, received the "Marine of the Month" award for the month of February at the Santa Ana Marine Corps Air Facility.

Sgt. Whitney, a veteran of nine years' service in the Marines, is a chief cook with the facility's food service division.

Along with the service award, he received a commendation plaque

Civic Panel Set in S.S.F.

South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce President Walter McRae announced the appointment of its executive committee.

The committee, composed of the officers plus two members at large, includes past president William Borba, McRae, vice president Jhn Susa, treasurer Gorden Murphy and Dr. Paul Nielsen.

Other committee chairmen include Gordon Murphy, membership; Charles Whitlock, meeting programs; Elmo Hall and John Buscovich, North County court facilities; Fred Rapp, beautification; John Susa, downtown revitalization; Glenn Whybark, highway and transportation; Anthony Disanto and Gordon Murphy, budget and finance; Arthur "Buzz" Haskins, flood control; William Harr and John Morgan, Miss S.S.F. Miss Millbrae Pageant Entries Open Millbrae Art and Youth Festival has announced it will take applications for the Miss Millbrae Pageant to be May 10 at Capuchino High School.

Applicants must have been a resident of Millbrae for at least one year and from 17 to 26 years of age.

Applications for the Millbrae Talent Contest, open to students of Capuchino and Mills High and residents of Millbrae, also are offered.

The usual prizes are offered to winners and participants of both contests. Applications are available at the Millbrae Chamber of Commerce, 333 Broadway.

Chest X-Ray Opportunity In South SF

Free chest X rays — for early warning of tuberculosis, lung cancer and enlarged heart—will be offered at two South San Francisco locations during April.

The service, made possible by public participation in the annual Christmas Seal campaign in San Mateo County, is provided by the local TB and Respiratory Disease Association.

The association's mobile unit will be at Winston Manor Shell Service on El Camino Real on Wednesday, April 9, and Hank's Texaco in Brentwood Shopping Center on Friday, April 11.

Hours both days will be 2 to 6 p.m.

No advance appointment is necessary, and the checkup requires only a few moments. It is available to any county resident 18 years of age or older.

Tax Money Restitution Is Ordered

Michael Migliore of South San Francisco, owner and operator of Mike's Pickup Service in the same city, appeared in Municipal Court, Northern Division, for sentencing on a charge of failure to furnish the Department of Employment reports of wages as required by law.

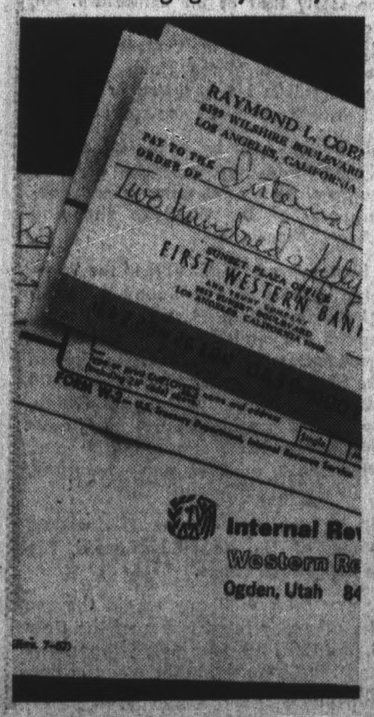
Migliore plead guilty on March 3, 1969. On March 25, 1969, Judge Delarios sentenced Migliore to make full restitution of all taxes, penalties and interest charges.

According to R. E. Hesky, district tax administrator for the Department of Employment, San Mateo County, it is part of the continuing program of the department to assure that all unemployment insurance reports and taxes due the State of California are filed and paid within the time limits prescribed by law.

Uncle Sam doesn't accept credit cards

Uncle Sam wants a check that won't bounce. Like a No-bounce check from First Western Bank.

When you have a No-bounce account, First Western Bank becomes your automatic lending agency. So if you write a check for more money than you have in your account, our computer knows it and immediately makes a deposit to cover that check.



That deposit is really a loan, and naturally we expect you to pay it back. But there's no big rush. We'll even skip the monthly service charge if you pay us back before the next billing date.

This is why a No-bounce account is better than all the credit cards in the world put together. It's honored in many places a credit card isn't. It also puts cash in your pocket when emergencies arise.

By the way, April 15th is the most predictable emergency we know of. Give us a call while there's still time.

'An Exclusive Testimony' Is Westside Easter Topic

"An Exclusive Testimony" is the topic chosen by Pastor Donnelly for the 11 a.m. Easter Sunday message. Special music for this service will be provided by the Mixed Octette, comprised of Mesdames James McDaniels, Bill DeLung, Gilmore Swanson, Miss Diane Swedberg; Messrs. Alton Swedberg, Bill DeLung, Roy King and Per Hillerstrom.

During the adult worship hour at Westside Baptist, a church service for boys and girls four through seven years of age is held. Then also during this service, a Nursery is maintained for babies and toddlers.

Sunday School at Westside Baptist convenes at 9:45 a.m. There are 15 classes, including three classes for adults.

The ordinance of the Lord's Supper will be observed Sunday evening, April 6 at the 7 o'clock Family Fellowship gospel hour. Pastor Donnelly will speak on the subject, "Afterglow From Calvary." Special music for this service will be a vocal solo by Dave Bjorkquist of Daly City.

Bill DeLung will lead in the congregational singing.

Saturday, April 5 at 8 a.m., Men's Prayer Fellowship will meet at the church office, 3370 Longview Drive, San Bruno.

Prayer and Bible Study Hour meets Wednesday evening, April 2, 7:30 p.m. at the home of Alton Swedberg, 19 Creston Avenue, Daly City.

Pastor Donnelly is leading in the study of the book of Titus.

Westside Baptist Church hold their Sunday services at the San Andreas School auditorium, Inverness Drive, and Hickey Boulevard (Fairmont), Pacifica.

The church is affiliated with the Baptist General Conference.

Annual Union Good Friday Services Set

The Annual Union Good Friday Service was announced today by the Rev. Thomas Unmacht, president of the Daly City Ministerial Association.

Seven churches of the community will be participating along with their pastors, and the public is invited to attend all or portions of the traditional three-hour service.

The service will be held at the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church, 377 87th Street, Daly City, from noon until 3 p.m., representing the time when Jesus was being crucified upon the cross. Sermon meditations will be given by the pastors upon the theme, "The Seven Last Words of Christ From the Cross."

Hymns and prayers will be included in the meditations.

Infant and child care will be provided during the service. The Rev. Herbert C. Tweedie is the host pastor.

4 From North In Festival

Four north San Mateo County musicians are among those who will perform in Berkeley in mid-April with the Sixteenth Junior Bach Festival.

The performers include Darian Ho, 14, harpsich, and Kathleen O'Shaughnessy, 17, flute, both of Daly City; Bobby Wu, 6, piano, Pacifica; and Gary Schultz, 18, organ, San Bruno.

Biafra Film Showing At St. Veronica's

Thursday is the evening set for the regular meeting of St. Veronica's Women's Club in the school cafetorium on Alida Way at 8 p.m.

Program slated for the evening will be presented by Fr. John Finucane, C.S.Sp., who will show a 17 minute film made by the Catholic Relief Services, entitled, "Mercy Flight to Biafra."

Father Finucane was ordained a Holy Ghost Father Irish Province, in 1963. He was appointed to Nigeria in 1964. He worked with the Ibo Tribe in Biafra until September of 1968 and will return to Biafra in July of 1969 to continue his work.

Parents and teachers of St. Veronica's Confraternity of Christian Doctrine will be special guests for the evening with the mothers of C.C.D. providing refreshments for the meeting.

Mrs. Robert Delaney, president, will introduce the nominating committee, who will present the nominees for the fourth coming year, with election at the May meeting.

No Change in BART Stand on D.C. Station

By FRANK LaPIERRE

The one-half cent tax raise passed by the State legislature Thursday will assure the Bay Area Rapid Transit District of completing its 75 mile system as planned.

But it will not increase their commitments to any of the districts involved in the rapid transit line around the Bay Area.

What this simply means is: BARTD does not intend to change its previous stand on building an underground station in Daly City.

If the city insists on maintaining its opposition to the two station designs (aerial or cut) that BARTD wants to build, the tracks will stop at the San Francisco-San Mateo county lines, a spokesman for the distict said yesterday.

The district spokesman said BARTD is still waiting for a reply to its last letter sent to Daly City regarding construction of the station, about six months ago.

But a Daly City official said today the letter was not "asking us anything, it simply indicated we should let them know when we are ready to accept their previous offer."

Assistant city manager David Rowe, who will soon inherit the transit headache when city manager Edward Frank retires in July, said no plans for talks with BARTD have been set. He likewise indicated the city has not changed its stand on wanting the underground facility.

Although neither side has made overtures to settle the years-long dispute over the station, one BARTD official optimistically predicted the matter "has to surface again" in the light of the new tax increase.

Others feel the expected monies (perhaps $150 million) will allow discussions to proceed in those communities affected by the system.

The station structure itself is not the only thing Daly City opposes. What concerns many officials of this North County city is the almost complete disregard BARTD's Board of Directors has displayed in talks regarding road networks and bridge approaches to the facility.

They have indicated to Daly City officials that the roads and traffic controls are not the problem of the rapid transit district, but rather the city.

Meanwhile, construction of the final station (Balboa Park) before the Daly City terminal station is well underway. BARTD directors have already threatened to halt the system at Balboa Park unless Daly City shifts its stand.

Pair Saved From Surf At Pacifica

A Pacifica couple escaped injury and safely reached shore Wednesday, after their rented outboard runabout capsized in the surf off Rockaway Beach, fire department spokesmen said.

Firemen said Cary and Lyn Westerlund, of 2416 Palmetto Avenue, were thrown into the ocean a few hundred feet off shore when the engine on their small boat stalled and the craft overturned in the surf about 3:30 p.m.

Onlookers called for a fire department rescue team, but Mr. and Mrs. Westerlund were safely ashore when firemen arrived.

Both were wearing life jackets, according to firemen.

Daly City's Water Chief Also Teaches

One of the best-kept secrets in Daly City is the fact that Water Department head George Alphin is also an accomplished educator.

As a result of his successful night instruction course on water supply management and conservation taken last year, the Peninsula Chapter of the American Water Works Association has asked Alphin to organize a ten-week certified course on the subject to be given at Belmont' College of Notre Dame.

Utility and consultant representatives from three counties have so far registered for the course, which is designed to cover all phases of water utility operation, management, supervision, maintenance and distribution.

Pour on Gas, Light Match, Call Firemen

No one was hurt, and damage was small when two boys used gasoline, which they ignited, in an attempt to clean up a paint spill Thursday.

Daly City firemen said paint had spilled on the garage floor at 214 Catherine Street.

The two boys, one the 14-year-old son of Mrs.Helen Lorenzo, attempted to clean up the spill by pouring gasoline, then lighting it with a match, the firemen explained.

The flame, igniting the fumes, flashed back to a nearby can of gasoline.

The flames shot up, setting off a domestic fire sprinkler head which controlled the blaze.

Candidates' Fair is Set

The League of Women Voters of North San Mateo County will sponsor a Candidates' Fair on April 11, 8 p.m. This event will feature the candidates for the Jefferson Elementary School District Board of Trustees, and will be held at Abraham Lincoln School in the multi-use room.

Each candidate accepting the invitation to appear will be assigned a table, and will remain at that table to answer questions individually from anyone who cares to ask them. They will be allowed to bring materials with them.

It is felt that this provides a better opportunity for voters to meet the candidates than does the ordinary candidates' night. It is hoped that many voters will take the opportunity to meet those running for this important position and familiarize themselves with the candidates and the issues.

Three Men Save Exhausted Surfer

An exhausted surfer was saved from drowning Thursday at Pacifca's Sharp Park Beach when three other young men plunged into the rough breakers and dragged him ashore, Pacifica Fire Department spokesmen said.

Horstmeyer became trapped in the breakers, and sank beneath the waves after struggling several minutes in the chill water.

He was completely submerged when the first of the rescuers, Glen Lynch, an 18-year-old Oceana High School student, braved the rough water and swam to his aid.

Lynch, Jim Morago, 21, of 712 Edgemar, and Ty Pila, 16, of San Bruno kept Horstmeyer's head above the water and pulled him to shore, where a fire department crew administered oxygen.

Horstmeyer said after he lost his board he "got caught, and couldn't get out."

"I didn't think anyone saw me, and it looked like I was a goner," he said.

He was treated by a private physician after firemen administered first aid, but apparently suffered only from exhaustion.

The three young men who performed the rescue will be recommended for the Red Cross Life Saving Award and the Carnegie Award for Heroism, fire department Captain James Evans said.

"They put forth a tremendous effort, and performed the rescue at the risk of their own lives," Evans said.

Tries to End Fight, Man Badly Hurt

A 26-year-old San Francisco bricklayer who tried to break up a minor parking lot disturbance in Daly City Thursday underwent brain surgery early today at Mary's Help Hospital after being hit over the head with a large rock.

Daly City police soon after arrested a 21-year-old Daly City merchant seaman, charging him with assault with a deadly weapon.

The victim, Jerry Hauser of 495 Moscow, San Francisco, suffered a compound depressed fracture of the skull, and was in brain surgery from 12:05 to 1:30 a.m. today, according to Mary's Help authorities, who listed his condition as "critical."

Held as a suspect in the incident is Jack Defletes of 1024 Schwerin Street, Daly City.

A spokesman for the Daly City Police Department said Defletes and an unidentified man were "fighting" at 10:30 p.m. on the parking lot of Whizburger, at Acacia and Geneva Avenue, Daly City.

The authorities explained that Hauser, who was accompanied by his wife — the couple was not with either of the parties involved in the disturbance, police said — attempted to intervene in the altercation.

In the process, police said, Hauser was hit over the head with a rock, which was picked up from the Whizburger parking lot.

'A' AWARD

HAMPTON, Va. — First Lieutenant Peter N. Neofotistos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter P. Neofotistos of 374 Alta Vista Drive, South San Francisco, is a member of the BOMARC ground-to-air interceptor missile squadron at Langley AFB, Va., that has earned the Aerospace Defense Command's (ADC) "A" Award.

Personnel of the Twenty-second Air Defense Missile Squadron earned the highest ADC unit award for year-long meritorious performance and operational effectiveness. The unit, part of the nation's protective force keeping ADC's prime unmanned weapon instantly ready, has been awarded the honor twice and is a recipient of the Air Force Outstanding Unit Award.

Lieutenant Neofotistos, a missile launch officer, is a graduate of South San Francisco High School. He received his B.A. degree in political science in 1967 from San Jose State College. He was commissioned there upon completion of the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps program.

Daly City Employes Awarded Honors

Daly City employees were honored last week at the annual Awards Dinner held in the War Memorial Building.

Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett welcomed the more than 200 employees, city commissioners and their guests attending the function and praised them for their contributions to the city Thursday.

Ricco Lagomarsino, representing the North San Mateo County Insurance Agents Association, presented a $25 check to Michael Sims for his safety suggestion concerning a new method for spraying plants and shrubs around the Civic Center building. The previous method allowed toxic sprays to infiltrate the structure through the venting system.

Special certificates were presented to several employees, with police captain David Hansen leading the list with four separate certificates for the evening.

Each city councilman, in turn, thanked the employees for their years of devoted service and expressed the hope that departments would continue their cooperation in the years to come.

The only "regret" that Mayor Lycett had, he informed the assembled guests, was the fact that Daly City was growing so big and the number of city employees increasing at such a rate, "I don't know half their names anymore."

The mayor commended assistant police chief Roy Beecher for his 25 years of service and presented the veteran law enforcement officer with a certificate and 25-year service pin.

Others receiving service awards Thursday were:

Fifteen years: Alfred Bender (Water), Allen Brush (Fire), William Chalmers (Water), Robert Crooker (Police), Arnold Edinger (Street), Philip LaBruzzo (Police), Albert Perada (Water), Frank Rehe (Water).

Ten Years: Vernon Brooke (Fire), Samuel Chandler (Library), Maxine Gates (Library), Eugene Klinger (Fire), Walter Mermon (Maintenance), Anna Ohlendorf (City Clerk), Alois Schiessl (Street), Charles Vincent (Recreation), Jack Winters (Fire).

Five Years: Adolph Bernard (Water) Robert Bonham (Water), Elizabeth Buckley (City Clerk's Office), Donald Campbell (Fire), Donald Cubic (Police), Howard Ferrel (Fire), Alexander Gallegos (Recreation), Arthur Glass (Police), Anthony Guilory (Parks), David Hernandez (Street), Marian Laskey (Finance), Paul Lucia (Police).

Five Years: Charles Phillips (Police), David Rowe (Assistant City Manager), Richard Sequine (Police), Robert Sola (Police), Willis Spender (Fire), Bronislaus Tamulski (Water), James Van Pelt (Police).

CALLING ALL HOMEMAKERS

By DONALD C. WAITE

WHICH ROOM IN A HOME CAN HAVE THE MOST USES?

Did you ever stop to think that the one room in a home that can be used for the most different purposes is the so-called den.

Dens can be used for such varied things as guest bedrooms, offices, cocktail and snack rooms, libraries, hobby rooms, game rooms, TV and radio rooms, and very often - the real living room.

Since it is often a small room with so many uses, it needs more careful planning and thought than most other rooms. It is usually a good idea to keep in mind that it is the informality, coziness, and privacy of this room which make it so popular, and you should furnish accordingly.

Because space is usually at a premium, wall units holding books, mementos, TV, radio, Hi-fi, built-in desks, etc., are often the perfect thing for a den.

A folding table and chairs which fit into the den closet can serve all purposes from card playing to eating.

A comfortable convertible sofa-bed is almost a must for most dens, and so is a real lounge chair and a good reading lamp.

When the den is also used as an office, compact desks are available containing both cabinets and a place for a typewriter.

We can get you every single item you need for your den, and we invite you to come in for ideas.

Miss California Pacifica Guest Star

Miss California, Sharon Kay Terrill, the state's reigning queen for the year, will be a special guest star of the Pacifica Chamber of Commerce's upcoming 1969 Miss Pacifica Pageant on Saturday, April 26, at Terra Nova High School.

The Miss Pacifica Pageant is now in its second year as an official Miss California-Miss America Preliminary. Last year the local pageant was proclaimed the "best local pageant production in the State of California."

This year's thirteenth annual pageant promises to follow local tradition by being even bigger and better. Featuring Alenna Ann Branson, Miss Pacifica 1969, Jack Fisher and the official Miss California Orchestra, that very talented singing emcee Fred La Cosse, and Dancer Benny Smith—the official choreographer of the Miss California and Miss America Pageants.

The magic of Miss America touched over 2,000 spectators last year, which was standing room only. Advance ticket purchase is suggested, as a complete advance sell out is expected. Merv Marks, manager of the Pacific Manor branch of the Bank of America is the chairman of Admission Control and he has tickets available at the bank, or one may contact the chamber office.

Assessment Practices Are Praised

Property assessment practices in San Mateo County generally are in "good shape," a dozen state experts reported today in a lengthy survey of the assessor's office.

The 107-page report, first for the county under 1966 assessment reform legislation, found comparatively minor flaws — mostly in internal controls.

"San Mateo County is far ahead of similar-sized counties in assessment uniformity, planning . . . and data processing," the report said.

"In most other cases," Assessor Jack Estes' office "is on a par with its urban peers. In a few cases it trails — especially in a lack of office space."

Member George Reilly of the State Board of Equalization, which authored the survey, said, "Jack Estes represents the new breed of professional assessor. On the basis of this survey, I'd say he has a 'space-age' operation.

"That can only mean that San Mateo County residents are getting blue ribbon assessment administration, undoubtedly with the budgetary help of the Board of Supervisors."

Reilly also noted that Estes, in addition to a career in property assessment, is a member of the select national Appraisers' Institute.

The 35 recommendations for changes were based on the specialists' three-months' survey which ended in June, 1968, and do not reflect any changes made since then.

Survey highlights recommended that the assessor step up audits of businesses from 500 annually to 2,700 a year; set up an internal audit program and speed up rural appraisals and check commercial and industrial properties more often.

But the authors noted that the "assessor and his staff are well aware of many of their problems . . . and have several new programs and made a number of changes designed to improve assessment uniformity."

On an "equality index," a statistical comparison of consistency in assessing various types of property, San Mateo ranked first in the state in the three years spanning 1964-66.

Its index was only an over-all 11 per cent on a scale where perfection is zero. Experts consider anything less than 10 per cent "practically unobtainable" when averaging all types of property.

However, in measuring the assessments in comparison to the board's market value estimates in 1966, the board found that industrial personal property was nearly 33 per cent while the average for all types was 22.1 per cent.

D.C. Debates New Assessment Plan

Daly City is presently studying the county proposed improvement of Eighty-seventh Street by assessment of property owners in that area.

Mayor Bernard (Bud) Lycett has made no bones about disliking the idea of hitting a handful of homeowners with an assessment "in an area that has paid taxes to the county for many years."

He wants to know what they have gotten for these taxes in the past and, more importantly, why an assessment district is necessary to improve the roadway in the county-controlled section.

But some city staff members have expressed the view that while they do not heartily embrace the assessment district, it would be "nice" if that portion of Eighty-seventh Street which lies adjacent to Daly City, is brought up to standard in case it is someday annexed to Daly City.

The county wants Daly City to enter into a joint-powers agreement, and also the granting of extra-territorial jurisdiction so that properties within the county and those in Daly City may be assessed for a portion of the contemplated improvements along the street.

County engineer Don S. Wilson said his office would probably be recommending that Eighty-seventh Street be improved to a width of 44 feet from curb to curb between Sullivan Avenue and Nimitz Drive, plus sidewalks, curbs and gutters. This would match existing improvements between Junipero Serra and Sullivan Avenue and would be in accordance with the graffic engineer's recommendations brought out in his report of February 1969.

Apparently the estimated cost of these improvements prompted the mayor to toss the request back in the laps of his staff. What these costs are has not been revealed.

The road is a major link between the Junipero Serra and Skyline boulevard area, passing in the general vicinity of the new Civic Center and U. S. Post Office.

While traffic volume along this roadway is considered moderate, accidents have been below average for similar roadways in the city, indicating a fairly safe section for traffic volume carried.

San Bruno Homes Are Ransacked

Three Berksire Drive homes were ransacked by burglars last week, San Bruno police reported today.

The burglaries occurred between 6 and 10:15 p.m.

Mrs. Judith Ann Hoover, 28, reported her home's rear sliding glass door was smashed, with the burglar taking a portable black and white television set and some $91 in money after all drawers in the bedroom has been rifled.

Allen Joseph Merelli, a 29-year-old model maker, told police his rear kitchen door lock was pried open and the chain lock ripped from the wall.

Taken from the Merelli residence were rifles and revolvers, a watch and an undetermined amount of cash, police said.

All bedrooms were ransacked. The thieves used a pillowcase in which to carry their loot.

The home of Frank Marshall, a 29-year-old sheet metal woker, also was entered through a slidig glass door the burglars had smashed.

Taken from that home were only several wigs. Other valuables, police said, were untouched.

Driving Class Registration In South SF

The South San Francisco Adult School announced that registration has opened for classes in Driver Education including Driver Training and First Aid. Interested students should register Wednesday in the Adult School Office. The courses:

Drive Education — Wednesday 7-10 ($3), 8 weeks . . . includes introduction to the Motor Vehicle Code, insurance requirements and car operation. Course fulfills requirement for diploma program and is prerequisite for driver training (behind - the - wheel).

Driver Training — Saturdays by appointment ($17). Students for this course are usually taken from the Driver Education course. Some students may sign up for behind - the - wheel training if they have taken driver education at other schools. Course includes five lessons in cars using automatic transmissions. Prepares students to take DMV examination.

Standard and Advanced First Aid — ($3), 8 weeks . . . this course satisfies the requirements for first aid in the diploma program.

$2381 Theft In San Bruno

Burglars raided the Peninsula Dealers Radio and TV store in San Bruno for several television sets, tape recorders and radiws.

Police said the stolen items were valued at $2,381.

San Bruno police patrolman Frank Young, on routine patrol, discovered the burglary.

He noticed the store's rear door was ajar.

Closer scrutiny reveled the lock first had been pried, then the door forced open by brute force.

Taken, sometime between 5:30 p.m. Tuesday and 5:20 a.m., police said, were five television sets—all but one color; three tape recorders and five radios.

Foster City Home For Newlyweds

At home in Foster City are Mr. and Mrs. Dino John Baldi (Nancy Louise Hamann) who were married at the First Congregational Church of San Mateo by Dr. David M. Held.

Nancy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hamann of San Mateo, wore a floor-length gown of white silk organza over taffeta accented with Venise lace in lilies of the valley motif. She carried butterfly orchids and lilies of the valley on a prayerbook given to her by her grandfather, the late William Weir.

Dianne Hamann acted as her sister's maid of honor, and Mrs. Jerry Cummings was the matron of honor. The bridesmaids included Mrs. Rolf Herrmann, Jo Ann Miller and Mrs. Angelo Gianaculas.

Jerry Cummings was the best man for Dino, the son of Mrs. Carolina Santi of South San Francisco. Ushering duties were shared by Larry Hamann, brother of the bride, Angelo Gianaculas, Rolf Herrmann and Jim Anderson.

After a reception at the Knights of Columbus Club, the couple left for a honeymoon in Carmel and Monterey. A guest at the wedding was Mrs. Emma Hamann, grandmother of the bride.

KATHLEEN RODEN, CHARLES PHILLIPS
To be Married in August

At a recent family dinner party Mr. and Mrs. James E. Roden Sr. of South San Francisco announced the engagement of their daughter, Kathleen, to Charles H. Phillips.

The bride-elect attended South San Francisco High School with her fiance and the College of San Mateo from which she received her associate in arts degree. She is the sister of James, Michael, Louis and Rose Ann Roden and the granddaughter of Mrs. Clara Bartok of South San Francisco.

Charles, the son of Charles E. Phillips of Pacifica and the late Mrs. Eula Phillips, is a veteran of Army duty in Vietnam. He has a sister, Pat Phillips, and two brothers, Wayne and Bill Phillips.

They will be married August 16 at 2 p.m. at All Souls Catholic Church in South San Francisco with a reception to follow at the House of Lawton in San Francisco.

Kathleen has asked her sister to be her maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will include Pat Phillips, Joan Petrocchi, Jeanene Ryan, Robin Kotta and Aileen Dowd. Lori Bartok, her godchild, will be the junior attendant, and Kimberly Vos the flower girl.

Wayne Phillips will be the best man, and ushers will include the bride's brothers, Tom and Bill Phillips, nephews of the benedict, and Bill Borelli.

Shakespeare Program At Westmoor

William Shakespeare, his plays, and the time in which he lived is being studied through different aspects this year in four Westmoor senior English classes.

Five travelling minstrels, otherwise known as Ken Boyd, Pattie Hallinan, Jenie Olsen, Jim Tweedie, and Lilyanne Whiteman, journeyed to Lee Doyle's and Mrs. Ruth Finnerty's English classes to sing madrigals. Leading them with a recorder, an instrument typical of Shakespearen time, was senior Westmoorite Robin Kramer, who is also Student Band leader.

Following the songs, Jeanie Olsen a fourth year English student in Mr. Doyle's class explained both the different kinds of songs of the period, as well as the recorder.

All the madrigal singers are members of Westmoor's Select Choir, a group of sixteen vocalists, who are instructed by Mrs. Darlene Ironside. All the participants, with the exception of Ken Boyd, a sophomore at Serramonte, are seniors at Westmoor.

Interest has also been engendered by some of these same classes witnessing the ACT production of Hamlet. They are planning to see the ACT enactment of "Rosecrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead" later this month.

Francisca de Larios Married To Roy Arthur Hansen

St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Burlingame was the setting for the recent marriage of Francisca de Larios and Roy Arthur Hansen. The Reverends Alanson Higbie of St. Paul's and Andrew Juvinall of the Hamilton Methodist Church in San Francisco officiated.

The daughter of Judge and Mrs. Francisco Jose de Larios of South San Francisco, Francisca recited her vows in a white silk and wool gown with a high neckline, long sleeves and appliques of pearl embroidered lace. Her cathedral-length white silk mantilla was handmade in Granada, Spain, and she carried white roses and stephanotis on her Job's Daughter's Bible.

Mrs. Robert Andrew Fuller Jr. of Brooklyn Heights, N.Y., was the matron of honor for Francisca in a floor-length white dress with a pink sash at the Empire waist. The bridesmaids, in similar gowns, included Kim Giles, Mrs. William Franke, sister of the benedict, Patricia Roberts, Sally Young and Mrs. Christopher Weld.

Ramona and Dana Franke, nieces of the benedict, acted as flower girls in pink-sashed white frocks, and Joseph de Larios, brother of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Frank Bertaina stood with his cousin as best man. Roy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Arthur Hansen of San Francisco. Ushers included Boyd de Larios, brother of the bride, Larry Grech, cousin of the benedict, Ronald Nicolai, Theodore Luff, William Franke, William Hamilton and Richard Catalano.

The couple met their guests at the California Golf Club.

Lake Tahoe Honeymoon For a Newlywed Couple

Honeymooning at Lake Tahoe, Reno and Las Vegas are Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Kienle (Sherry Freeman) who were married Saturday afternoon at the Lakeside Presbyterian Church.

Sherry, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Freeman of Daly City, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin gown with crystal and pearl detail on the sleeves and appliques of lace on the front of the gown and on the train. She added a shoulder-length veil and carried white roses and stephanotis.

Frost blue crepe gowns with Chantilly lace sleeves were chosen by Sherry's attendants who included Diane Barney as matron of honor, and Diane Kienle, sister of the benedict, as bridesmaid. They both carried Tropicana roses and white daisies.

Stephen, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kienle of San Bruno, asked his brother, Pete Kienle, to be his best man. Don Krause and Mike Del Castello ushered.

The couple met their guests at the Forest Lodge and will make their first home in San Bruno.

The new matron, the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Cutler, attended Westmoor High School. Her husband was graduated from Crestmoor High School.

Something Different For Easter Sunday

Good morning, good cooks.

Easter Sunday is almost here. Hope the weather man co-operates and gives us sunny skies for the Easter parade.

Do you have a new hat? Are you daughters happy with all their new clothes? And are your sons equally unhappy with all their new clothes? Ah well, that's par for the course. Most females just love dressing up and most males hate it.

After the Easter parade and after the finding of the eggs and chocolate bunnies, the time comes for Mother to prepare dinner. The traditional dish for Easter is ham, but it doesn't have to be ham. A leg of spring lamb would be just as nice. Or if you want to try something very different, how about this chicken dish? It uses ham too, so the traditionalists will be happy.

PINEAPPLE CHICKEN

2½ to 3 lbs. frying chicken, cut into pieces
¼ cup flour
1½ teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon thyme
Enough butter for browning chicken
½ lb. sharp cheddar cheese, shredded
½ lb. cooked ham, cut into strips
1 can (4 oz.) sliced mushrooms
1 can (14 oz.) pineapple tidbits
¼ cup pineapple juice

Combine the one-fourth cup flour, one and one-half teaspoons salt, one-half teaspoon pepper and one-half teaspoon thyme. Roll the chicken in the flour and brown in butter, turning to brown on all sides.

Transfer to a two-quart casserole, or oblong baking dish, and sprinkle the one-half pound each cheese and ham over top. Add the can of mushrooms and liquid. Drain the pineapple, reserving one-fourth cup liquid. Place the tidbits over the top of the chicken and pour the one-fourth cup juice over all.

Cover and bake in a moderate oven (350-degrees) about 40 minutes. Remove top and bake 10 minutes longer.

☆ ☆ ☆

A beautiful and delicious dessert for Easter is this torte. And the fact that it can be made ahead makes it a special blessing for the busy homemaker on this very busy day.

The torte calls for six egg whites and I've been watching for a recipe that called for those six yolks. Just this week I made some bar cookies that used up those yolks in a delicious manner. For Easter you can serve the torte and these cookies too. Decorate the top of the cookies with tiny easter eggs.

For convenience it would be a good idea to make the cookies first and while they are cooling, make the torte. Then you can finish frosting and decorating the cookies while the torte bakes.

HONEY HUMBARS

½ cup shortening
1 cup honey
6 egg yolks
1¼ cups sifted flour
1 teapsoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped dates
1 cup chopped nuts
1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups sifted powdered sugar
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
1 egg yolk
1 tablespoon lemon juice
3 tablespoons soft butter

Blend the one-half cup shortening with the one cup honey, beat in the six egg yolks one at a time. Sift together the one and one-fourth cup flour, one teaspoon baking powder and one-half teaspoon salt. Blen into the egg mixture. Stir in the one cup each chopped dates and nuts and the one teasoon vanilla.

Spread into a greased 13x9x2-inch baking pan. Bake in 350-degree oven for 30 minutes. Cool.

Combine the two cups powdered sugar, two teaspoons lemon rind, one egg yolk, one tablespoon lemon juice and three tablespoons butter. Spread over cooled cookies. Cut into bars. Makes about 3 dozen.

☆ ☆ ☆

FORGOTTEN TORTE

6 egg whites
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon cream of tarter
1½ cups sugar
1 teaspoon vanilla

First: Heat oven to 450-degrees. Butter the bottom of a nine-inch tube pan.

Beat the six egg whites (have them at room temperature) with the one-fourth teaspoon salt and one-half teaspoon cream of tarter, until almost stiff. Add the one and one-half cups sugar, two tablespoons at a time, and beat well. The meringue will be quite stiff. Lastly fold in the one teaspoon vanilla.

Spread evenly in the buttered pan. Place in oven. TURN OFF OVEN, and forget it overnight.

Next morning, loosen the edges of torte from pan and turn out. (Be tender with this torte, let it fall into your hand and then place it on a pretty plate.) Frost it with ½ pint of cream, whipped. Chill until serving time and place fruit on top. I used frozen peaches and they were delicious.

☆ ☆ ☆

DID I HEAR you say, "What about that extra egg white, the one left over from the frosting?" No problem. I just added it to thh torte recipe, plus two tablespoons more sugar.

St. Theresa District 14 YLI Dinner

Mrs. John Oberst, St. Theresa, was the general chairman. The Rev. John Finucane, presently visiting St. Veronica parish, was guest speaker. Rev. Finucane formerly served in Biafra and will return there this summer.

The five institutes represented at the dinner meeting included Angela Institute, 90, San Bruno; San Mateo Institute, 92, SM, Notre Dame, 124, Redwood City; Our Lady of Pilar, Half Moon Bay, and St. Theresa Institute.

St. Theresa's Deputy, Cecilia Kerrigan were special guests.

Officer Election For Riordan Guild

THE POST'S Family Forum

The regular monthly meeting of the Riordan High School Mothers' Guild will be held April 8 at 8 p.m. in Chaminade Hall located in the high school.

Mrs. John Cresalia will submit recommendations from the nominating committee for guild officers for the 1969-1970 term.

Final plans for the school's annual Festival will be announced by Mr. Vern Box and Mr. Albert Bucci, chairman and co-chairman. The theme of the Festival will be ALOHA and will be held on April 25, 26 and 27.

Mrs. William Trejillo and Mrs. John Walsh, freshmen mothers will be in charge of the White Elephant Booth; Mrs. Leo Musso and Mrs. Jerry Lucey will be in charge of the sophomore booth, the Grocery Booth; the Cake Booth will be under the chairmanship of junior mothers Mrs. Fred Calonico and Mrs. John Flaherty; and the senior class venture will be under the guidance of Mrs. Curtis Green and Mrs. John Ortelle who will run the Snack Bar.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Murphy will be in charge of the Chicken Barbeque Dinner to be held on April 27 from 3 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. The price of the dinner will be $1.75 for adults and $1 for children. The other booths will be manned by members of the Father's Club.

Since this will be a most informative meeting, all should make an effort to support the present officers and board members.

The hostesses for the evening will be mothers of boys from the Junior Division.

TERRA NOVA TOPICS . . .

By Alice Reichert

The Self Image is one of Pacifica's many and varied teen-age bands .A group since September of 1967, they play mostly "soul" music which is often considered a backbone for most of today's new music.

All students at C.S.M., they claim music to be the most important part of their lives. As much as they play and appraciate their music though, their college majors are all apart from music. Stella Hayes, a drummer for 14 years, is majoring in interior design and decorating. Mike Comer, lead guitar for the group, majors in general business, as well as giving guitar lessons. Paul Gretch, who can play all kinds of guitar, plays bass in the Self Image, and majors in aeronautics at C.S.M. Sam Catalina, who has played the organ for ten years, also majors in aeronautics. All the members have played in various groups before the Self Image.

"We play for nothing sometimes," Stella says, "because we enjoy playing and want others to enjoy our music." Of course like any group who is serious about its music, they would like to make it big. But their music is a hobby, a pleasure, and not a livelihood.

The Self Image has made it's name playing at all different functions in and out of Pacifica: weddings, parties, Pacifica's YOP, high schools, etc. Anywhere where people want to hear them, they can play.

Music is great for everyone they feel, and it plays an important part in anyone's life who appreciates it, no matter how subtle an effect it may have. "Parents should have an understanding of teen music," Stella emphasized, because it can do so much to mold a person's character.

Being experienced in various groups the Self Image had their tips for young bands who have not been in as many. Firstly, all the kids in a band should have their mind on one pattern of music. For instance, one can't be thinking soul, while the lead guitarist is in the psychedelics. Anyone who ever takes up music should never give it up. Their music will always stay with him, and it helps and molds the individual in his own way. Lastly, a group shouldn't be discouraged when turned down or criticized. There is no "bad" music. Music is not only to entertain others, but for an artist to entertain himself. After all, anyone can enjoy music and anyone can play at least enough to enjoy it himself.

Serramonte Fashion Fair

The Serramonte High School Association is sponsoring the "Serramonte High Fashion Fair" on April 12 at 2 p.m., in the Abraham Lincoln School multi-use room.

A fund raising activity, under direction of Mrs. Kenneth Kimball, Ways and Means Chairman.

McDonald's Fashions of the Serramonte Shopping Center is providing the outfits to be modeled by Serramonte High School students. Commentator for the event is Miss Joan Greenwood, co-ordinator of McDonald's.

Modeling participants are: Young Men: Mike Jones and Harvey Paul. Young Ladies: Misses Fran Bartholome, Carol Bridwell, Stevanne Ellis, Marlene Kane, Cynthia Lee, Carol Muller, Pearl Reed and Denise Vannucchi. Adults: Mrs. Catherine Smallwood and Mrs. Norma Washford.

Refreshments will be served and a door prize drawing. Donations: Adults $1, with student body card 75 cents. Tickets will be available at the door.

LOUANNE HEATH'S DATEBOOK

Guild Nominations

The nominating committee of the Holy Angels Women's Guild will present its recommendations to fill guild offices for the coming term during the regular monthly assembly this evening in the parish hall.

According to Mrs. William Holland, publicity chairman for the group, Mrs. Stanley Kettell, nominating committee chairman, will present the tentative list of candidates during the business portion of the meeting, scheduled for 8 p.m.

Mrs. George Sigigie and Mrs. Billie Smith, the co-chairmen of the parish's Sew and Show Fashion show, will also be on hand this evening to sell tickets for the May 3 event and to urge everyone to begin stitching up some spring creations for their families to assure wide participation in this program.

Accordng to Mrs. Holland, though the show is sponsored by the parish, it is a community project and any amateur seamstress in the community is invited to model her handiwork or to attend and enjoy seeing what others are making.

Tickets are being sold for $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children. Anyone wishing to make reservations or desiring to enter the show is asked to contact Mrs. Sigigie, 755-1687 for information.

☆ ☆ ☆

Members of newly formed St. Andrew's parish will begin Holy Week observances with a community meal in the Westmoor cafeteria tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock. Persons attending are asked to provide their own food and utensils. Coffee will be served by the committee. Worship services will begin at 8 p.m. in the school's gymnasium.

Good Friday devotions will also take place in Westmoor's gymnasium beginning at 12 noon and continuing until 3 p.m. Special observances are to be held at 2 p.m.

An Easter Vigil will begin at 10:30 p.m. on Saturday with special liturgical ceremonies ending with the first Mass of Easter at midnight.

Sunday morning masses, again at Westmoor, will begin at 7 a.m. and conclude with the 12:30 p.m. service.

☆ ☆ ☆

Mrs. Denise Frary was elected president of the Tau Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi during the meeting of March 25, according to Mrs. Beverly Mannina, publicity chairman. Assisting Mrs. Frary during her term will be Mrs. Ronnie San Ford, vice president; Mrs. Billie Riggs, recording secretary; Mrs. Mannina, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Joan McClellan, treasurer.

Special feature of the election meeting was the appearance of Fireman John P. Murphy who gave an informative talk and demonstrated the technique of mouth-to-mouth resusitation. Mrs. Irene McShea arranged for Murphy's appearance.

The next meeting will be held on April 8 in the home of Mrs. Roberta Gould. Two new members, Mrs. Joanne Geertsema and Mrs. Elaine Fellows will receive their Pledge Ritual and Mrs. Carolyn Phillips, Ways and Means chairman, will receive her Ritual of the Jewels.

The May White Elephant Sale will be discussed at that meeting, Mrs. Mannina reported.

☆ ☆ ☆

Don't forget to save April 16 for the Olympia-Rivera P-TA sponsored House Tour!

Reservations are now available from Mrs. Harold Wachter for $2 per person. Mrs. Paul Gill is the tour chairman and Mrs. Robert Spirz is the president of the P-TA unit.

☆ ☆ ☆

Members of the Westmoor-Serramonte Band are seeking "angels" to help finance the band's proposed appearance at Disneyland this spring.

See any member of the band for more information about donating to this worthy undertaking. The band has represented Daly City all over California and in Nevada and has always acquitted itself admirably and acquired a number of trophies for the school. The student efforts to finance this trip deserve community support.

☆ ☆ ☆

David Graham of Australia's Witchcraft Cosmetics was the dinner companion of Mr. and Mrs. Murray H. Freedman, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ariani and Mrs. P. Evert Terminello during the recent Australia Night presented at the San Francisco Press Club.

Graham, from Sydney, was in this country to take part in the Australian Trade Fair at Brooks Hall, and to enter in the competition for a share of the American cosmetic market. Graham hopes to challenge Revlon, Curtis, et al., with potions compounded from the recipies of an ancient Welsh witch.

115-MPH Freeway Chase; Truck Smashed, Sparks Shower; Pedestrians Flee

One of the wildest stolen car chases on record, in which the quarry reached speeds over 115 miles an hour despite the loss of one tire, ended Saturday night with the auto demolished against a concrete highway abutment in San Mateo.

"You guys never would have caught me if the car hadn't wrecked," the young driver told highway patrolmen. "I was leading all the way, wasn't I?"

The suspect, Dennis Paul Donahue, 20, a Navy enlisted man stationed at Treasure Island, was booked at county jail on 12 driving charges, including reckless driving, auto theft and hit-run driving.

Patrolmen Clifford Gerken and Ed Campbell gave this account:

Spotted in Bruno

Gerken first saw the late-model sedan, which turned out to have been stolen in San Francisco, southbound on Bayshore Freeway in San Bruno. He tried to stop the car because it was doing only a casual 30 miles an hour in the fast lane. When the red light and siren went on however, the chase began.

The stolen car, while dodging in and out of heavy traffic, struck the guard rail and fence in the center divider several times and one such collision, in Burlingame, caused the left front tire to blow out. Donahue continued to maneuver the car in and out of traffic, despite the flat tire, at speeds well over 100 miles an hour. There were countless near-collisions with other autos.

Finally, the tire came off completely, but that did not slow the chase any.

Fountain of Sparks

A 20-foot high "roostertail" of sparks sprayed up behind the speeding car.

At Nineteenth Avenue Freeway in San Mateo the car hit a pickup truck driven by Thomas Lee Harper, 32, owner of the San Mteo Tile Company, knocking it off of the roadway.

The stolen car also jumped the curb but landed on an off-ramp and headed west on Nineteenth Avenue Freeway. Finding his way blocked by traffic, Donahue skidded through a gas station, crashed through some wooded barricades and shot into the Unimart parking lot, forcing dozens of shoppers to scramble for their lives.

Pedestrians Scatter

Arriving at a dead end, the car doubled back, crossed Grant Street and sped into the parking lot of Pay Less Drug Store, again scattering pedestrians.

Still leaving a trail of sparks, the auto went onto Delaware Street, then finally spun out of control and crashed against the concrete abutment under the freeway overpass.

When they got a chance, the officers asked Donahue where he was going.

"Just out for a ride," he said.

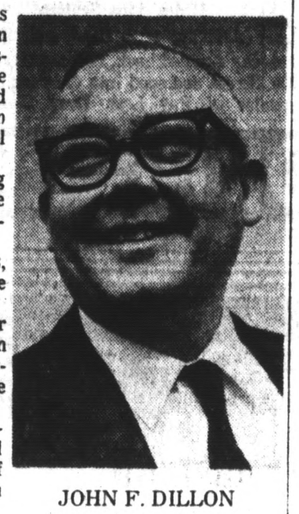
Dillon Enters Race in SSF



JOHN F. DILLON

John Francis Dillon, 57, has entered the race for South San Francisco Unified School District trustee because of "the poor showing the students and graduates of our schools" in tests given outside the school district.

Dillon cites the latest reading achievement tests given by the state of California to all students of secondary schools.

"In this test," he comments, "our children made an average of 106 perentile points.

"This indicated to the tester that our children were behind in reading about one year, on average, for children of their age in school.

"I note with concern," he continues, "That this scoring listed us almost ON THE BOTTOM of the list for all school districts in San Mateo County.

"Secondly, look at the number of graduates that are required to take 'bonehead' math or 'bonehead' English every year as a prerequisite for admission to college!"

Paradoxically, he notes the high pay in the South San Francisco school system "attracts an unusual number of teachers every year, and, as a result, we can afford to be highly selective."

Dillon says that because of the almost unlimited funds in the past few years, "the school board and this administration . . . have entered into so many experiments and programs in education that they are the envy of almost any other school district in the country.

"As a consequence, educators and administrators from all over the country praise and envy their freedom of choice.

"Despite all this acclaim, the plain fact remains that the administration has seen fit to neglect basic education," he charges, "with the aforementioned results. Only 50 per cent of our graduates aspire to a college education; less obtain a degree."

Dillon, who lives at 28 Arlington Drive, South San Francisco, has owned his home there fifteen years. The father of two daughters and three sons, he attended Seattle University from 1939 to 1942, entered the Army as a private and advanced to major in the Field Artillery, seeing military service in World War II and the Korean War and serving in seven campaigns as a field artillery officer. He presently is with the state Department of Motor Vehicles.

He has served as a board member of Winston Manor Home Owners Association for four years, two as treasurer; coached baseball for the Police Athletic League in South City for three years, has been a charter member of Mater Dolorosa Men's Club and of the choir, and taught ROTC at Mission and Polytechnic High Schools, San Francisco, in 1962 and 1963.

His platform:

"If I am elected I would recommend the establishment of remedial classes for those students who fall behind in their work, or for those who may have difficulty either in understanding the subject, as some do, or find it difficult because of the language barrier. These classes would be staffed by cadet teachers or students who have shown an inclination for a teaching career, and their instruction coordinated with the basic education teacher.

"I would also expand the "Pre-school" program to involve the parents and neighborhood schools. This type of program is very inexpensive and has proven over and over again most beneficial to young children. They become more adjusted to school life and are more receptive to learning when they enter regular school.

"I feel that I am presenting a better utilization of school funds and more efficient utilization of the high talent we have engaged as teachers of our schools. The programs I have offered are minimal in cost and offer the greatest return for our tax dollar.

"I also feel that we are entitled to more federal and state aid to offset the expenses of running our schools. And I would like to help secure these funds."

Padreddii Asks S.S.F. Re-election

LEO PADREDDII

Support for re-election of Leo Padreddii as member of the South San Francisco School Board was solicited today. Padreddii has served four years and has been vice chairman of the board.

Padreddii an officer with the Alcoholic Beverages Control Board, Padreddii, listed these qualifications and views on various school problems:

"Because of the difficult times in which we live, it would be beneficial to the public to keep experienced and competent persons on the school board. This school district has been recognized as one of the outstanding districts in California during my tenure on the board. I was recently appointed to the San Mateo County Committee on School Organization.

"We have built three new schools during my time on the board and are now building the fourth, namely Westborough Junior High School.

"By conducting the Melbo Survey, we determined that a new high school was not needed at this time by taking the ninth grade out of the high school and putting it into the junior high school, which resulted in a savings of approximately $7,000,000 to the taxpayers.

"We have an outstanding Adult Education program in our district with 3,000 people in attendance.

"A continuation high school has been established, taking 54 young people off the streets and giving them another chance to get a high school diploma and to become productive citizens.

"The district is now building five libraries at South San Francisco High School and at Southwood, Parkway, Alta Loma, and Westborough Junior High Schools.

"All our schools meet the state requirement regarding earthquake hazards.

"Employer-employee relations have been excellent. The board has served in such a way as to bring sound leadership and intelligent decisions to bear on the educational programs offered. We have had real harmony while many districts have experienced chaos.

"During my tenure I was awarded a 'Distinguished Service Award' from the teachers of the district for 'interest and contribution to public education.'

"I served as chairman of the South San Francisco Boys' Club United Crusade program in 1966."

$1,477 Taken At Pharmacy

The Key Pharmacy, 458 San Mateo Avenue, San Bruno, lost $1477 from its safe to an unseen thief.

San Bruno police said four workers were in the store between 10 a.m. and noon, when someone slipped into a back room and took the contents of eight canvas money sacks.

No one saw the thief enter or leave the store, police said.

Eserini to Run For Seventh Term

Leo Eserini, present chairman of the South San Francisco Board of Trustees, has recently filed to run for re-election for another term of office. He has served the school district as a hool board member for 16 years and, during his term of office, was elected its chairman six times.

During his long term of service he has assisted in developing a small school district, from infancy, to the largest unified school district in the county. During his tenure, the South San Francisco schools have received recognition on the state and national level, for "quality education" and for its "innovative programs."

Eserini was born and raised in South San Francisco. He is married, with two children, both of whom attended local schools in South San Francisco. His philosophy of education shows a belief in "strong discipline, quality education through research, sound school management and getting the most education possible out of each instructional dollar."

Eserini believes that continued excellence and quality education can best be maintained through mutual cooperation be- of South San Francisco for 58 years gives him an awareness of what the expectations are of the community and a sensitivity to the educational needs of all the students attending school.

Eserini has served as an instructor during World War II; has been employed for the past 35 years at Bethlehem Steel in South San Francisco, and presently is foreman in the mechanical engineering department. He pledges to maintain highest educational standards and discipline, which South San Francisco has always experienced in all of its schools.

Coastside 'Green Belt' Is Backed

A green belt eventually to house a San Pedro regional park from the mountainous area owned by the San Francisco Water Department to Green Valley between Pacifica and Montara on the Coastside was set by the county's Local Agency Formation Commission Wednesday when they set Pacifica's "sphere of influence" southern boundary south of the Shamrock ranch but below the San Pedro Mountain ridge.

The commission made it clear it wants the area preserved as an open space area when at a previous meeting it set Half Moon Bay's "sphere of influence" south of Green Valley.

As at other similar meetings, opponents of a proposed sanitary fill dump in Green Valley appeared in force at yesterday's hearing, and David March of Montara went so far as claiming, "The real purpose of this commission is to put Green Valley in the sphere of influence of the scavenger companies. You went against the will of the people the last time."

Mrs. Florence McKenzie complained the commission, which rules on future annexations and incorporations, had already "cut Half Moon Bay down to the size of a prune."

By moving the property away from the Montara-Moss Beach sanitary district's sphere of influence, Mrs. McKenzie argued that the commission was further weakening the fight of Coastside residents against the Green Valley dump.

Maurice K. Hamilton, commission chairman, explained that the matter of a dump does not come under the commission's jurisdiction.

The matter of Pacifica's eastern sphere of influence boundary is still being negotiated, B. Sherman Coffman, commission executive officer, explained. He said possible conflicts exist with San Bruno, including some portions of the San Francisco Water Department watershed and the site of the San Francisco County Jail No. 2 west of San Bruno.

Followed And Robbed After Game

A retired card room owner, 67-year-old Harold F. Johnson, was robbed at gunpoint of $502 last week, the gunman following him home from a card game, San Bruno police reported.

The victim arrived at his house, at 233 San Luis Avenue, shortly before 1:30 a.m.

Johnson told police that after he had driven into his carport, he was approached by a Negro male adult, about 30 years old, who was armed with an automatic pistol.

"Alright, hold it right there!" the bandit told Johnson, "Give me your money."

Johnson handed over $500.

"Do you have any more? Give me your wallet," the robber ordered, "Now, lay down on the seat."

The man was last seen running down San Luis Avenue. A car later was heard, but not seen.

$1,000 Theft Is Made As Owner Sleeps

Milo R. Atkin, 32-year-old pharmacist of 138 Seacliff Court, Montara told Deputy Sheriff John Hammarstrom Wednesday that he is a sound sleeper.

That would explain how someone was able to steal more than $1,000 worth of articles from Atkin's bedroom while he slept.

Atkin told Hammarstrom that he awoke at 10 a.m. that day to discover that his room had been ransacked and that someone had made off with three rifles, a shotgun, two swords, two walkie-talkies, an amplifier, movie camera, strobe light and other camera equipment. His binoculars were also missing from the dining room and another sword was missing from its place over the fireplace.

The total value of the articles was set at $1,398.

Atkins told the deputy that he came home at 2 a.m., went to bed and slept quite soundly.

Hammarstrom surmised the thief entered the house through the door leading to the sundeck, which was not locked.

Newsmen Quiz Candidates

The Serramonte High School Association in Daly City last week took a new approach for its gathering of Jefferson Elementary and Jefferson High School District's Board of Trustee candidates.

As elections near, candidates' nights become abundant, with would-be municipal or school officials fielding as assortment of questions and listening to the opinions of citizens attending the numerous gatherings.

Last night's Serramonte Association was different in the respect that the prodding questions came from three area newsmen instead of from the audience.

Ron Miguel, the association member who chaired the meeting that featured nearly all the candidates for Jefferson Elementary and Jefferson High School Districts' trustees, explained that it was his belief the newsmen could fire more knowledgeable, more relevant questions at the candidates since the newsmen report activities of the north county schools.

Newsmen participating in the 2½-hour question, answer and discussion session were Will E. Thomas, Post-Times north county editor; Phil Garlington Jr., San Francisco State College-North Peninsula reporter for the San Francisco Examiner; and Ron Bates, city editor of the Daly City Record.

Candidates participating were:

Jefferson Elementary — Dorothy Adams, Gordon Cartwright, Elbert V. Collett Jr., Aaron Hirsch, Mrs. Reva Krips and William Schumacher.

Jefferson High School — James Ayers, Russell Chiosso, Elio Fontana, Ronald Marren, Jane Powell, Robert Runneals and Edward Solomon.

Finances in the money-short districts — particularly in the high schools appeared the greatest problem. And the candidates were unanimous in their recognition of it.

There appeared to be a general acknowlegement that state aid must be obtained; opinion was split on whether or not such aid would be forthcoming.

NORTH PENINSULA BASEBALL

Jefferson Nine Remains Unbeaten

Jefferson High School, bridesmaids in the North Peninsula League baseball races the past few seasons, seems now ready, willing, and able to take command of things in 1969.

The Indians, under the tutelage of freshman coach Tom Martinez, came up with their second league victory on Friday, 6-1, over Westmoor, leaving them the only undefeated squad after just two games. In other conference action, El Camino got by Oceana, 7-1, while Half Moon Bay trounced Terra Nova, 8-1. South San Francisco's Warriors edged McClymonds, 22-2, in a 16-hit practice rampage.

Martinez got another route-going performance from his pitching staff as Bill Fischer made his first start an 11-strikeout stint. Fischer, never in serious trouble after the Indians staked him to a three-run first-inning lead, only gave up two hits and three walks. The only Westmoor run was unearned.

Back-to-back first-inning doubles by shortstop Ken Reitz and first baseman Smoky Morton provided the offensive punch that gave the Indians their winning margin.

Five consecutive singles by Fischer, Bruce Davidson, Tony Moss, Morton, and Mike Egipciaco added another three Jeff runs in the fifth.

The Indian win might have been costly, however, as starting catcher John Giannini took a foul ball on his throwing hand that required four stitches. It was the seventh Jeff player to be injured in the past two weeks.

Four unearned runs in the fourth inning gave the El Camino nine its second win of the year against one loss, one-half game off the pace. After two were out centerfielder Paul Le singld and stole second. He scored when Dennis Camperdon got on via an error. Leftfielder Jim Sartain walked just ahead of Mike Tenerowicz' three-run homer over the leftifeld screen at Camino.

Righthander Ted DePucci went the distance for Harry Pitkoff's crew, striking out seven Shark batters and allowing just three hits.

Striking for six runs in the first inning, Half Moon Bay evened its league record at 1-1 with a victory over Terra Nova, which now has a two-agme losing streak. Left-handed junior Jim Emery went the route for Harvey Koepf's team allowing five hits and three walks while strikin out eight.

Skip Gianocca walked to open the game and was tripled home by catcher Tom Evan who was singled home by John Ramaciotti. Ensuing safeties by Chuck Moyer, Dave Burr and Dave Lea with a walk thrown in to Dale Anderson accounted for the six-run explosion off starter and loser Al Salaisi, a sophomore.

Ace right-hander John Burgess came in in the first inning and shut the door with the exception of two unearned runs in the sixth but by then the Cougars had done their damage.

Burgess supplied the only offense of the day for the Tigers as he tripled in Mike Humphrey, who had walked, in the second.

South City got 16 hits and stole 13 bases. Rightfielder Lou Lodigiani hit a two-run homer in the second. Need there be more?

MPL BASEBALL

An Epidemic Of Shutouts

Burlingame's 1969 Mid-Peninsula League title hopes, which suffered a temporary setback in their opener, came back in an impressive style Friday.

Coach Bob Milano's Panthers fashioned a nifty 4-0 victory over Hillsdale to even their MPL mark at 1-1. In other MPL action, Crestmoor made an auspicious debut into the MPL wars by blanking Aragon, 2-0, and San Mateo downed Capuchino, 6-0.

Burlingame's Mike Hanchey shut the host Knights down on only three hits, while striking out five. The Panthers struck first in the top of the fifth inning when Bob Davis singled and Bruce Hartsook and Tom Batter were each hit by pitches to load up the bases.

Hanchey then aided his own cause by singling home Davis and Hartsook. Steve Lucchesi made it 3-0 by chasing in Batter with a double.

The winners picked up a solo tally in the top of the seventh when Batter singled, was sacrificed to second, went to third on a wild pitch and scored on Tony Gula's single.

Crestmoor's Dave Wright, who has not walked a man all season, kept his distinguished mark intact by hurling a walkless two-hitter past Aragon. The loss dropped the Dons to a 1-1 mark.

Wright also made sure that coach Steve Gehre's crew came out on top as he knocked in Bob Forsythe in the top of the second to give the Falcons a 1-0 ad.

Crestmoor added two insurance runs in the top of the seventh when Bob Micklos walked and was knocked home by Pat Nutini's double, who in turn scored on Craig Heden's single.

LE PACINI

AS YOU STEADY READERS KNOW, we must occasionally vent our whim for trivia. And as you further know, our favorite trivial subject is baseball records. So for those of you who are in empathy, read on. If you're still worried about basketball, are looking forward to football, or are a track fan, see you later.

DID YOU KNOW . . . who played more games at first base than any player in the history of the major leagues? Bet you thought it was Lou Gehrig, right? You're wrong. It was Jake Beckley, who played 2,368 (Gehrig played 2,164) games from 1888 through 1907 for Pittsburg, Cincinnati, and St. Louis, all of the National League.

DID YOU KNOW . . . That fabled Hall of Famer "Bid Ed" Delahanty was only 5-10, 170 pounds?

DID YOU KNOW . . . That Hugh Duffy, famed for his 1894 batting average of .438 — highest single season average in the history of the game — stole 597 bases during his big league career?

DID YOU KNOW . . . how good a hitter Wes Ferrell, who gained fame as a pitcher with the Cleveland Indians (he's the only pitcher in the history of the game to have won 20 games for each of his first four years in the majors), really was? You may know that he had a major league lifetime batting average of .280, drove in 208 runs, that he hit a whopping 38 homers as a big league pitcher, that he holds the major league record for most homeruns in a season by a pitcher (9 — 1931), and that he holds the major league record for pitchers for the most times hitting two homeruns in a game (5), but we'll bet you didn't know that: when Farrell managed Lynchberg in the Virginia League in 1942, he not only pitched but played the outfield and second base, and in 123 games he led the league in hitting (.361) and homers (32), and drove in 99 runs; that when managing Marion in the Western Carolina League, led the league in hitting with an astounding .425 (and at age 40), hit 24 homers and drove in 119 in 104 games while playing the outfield, all over the infield, and pitching; and then at age 41, hit .362 for Greensboro in the Carolina League!

Now THERE was a hitting pither.

DID YOU KNOW . . . That Sliding Billy Hamilton, the Hall of Famer who stole more bases in his career than Ty Cobb (937-892) and holds the National League record for most stolen bases in a single season (115-1892), stole 74 bases in just 113 games for Haverhill of the New England league at age 38? That isn't all. At 42 he stole 39 for Haverhill in just 85 games, and at 43 (for Lynn, in the New England League) he copped 23 in 109 games.

DID YOU KNOW That the tall, rangy first baseman image is only modern stereotyping? The great Joe Judge was just 5-8½, 155 pounds. Stuffy McInnis of the fabled "Million Dollar Infield" was 5-9½, 162.

DID YOU KNOW . . . That Hall of Fame hurler "Old Hoss" Radbourn had a 60-12 record for Providence of the National League in 1884 while toiling in 74 games and 679 innings? The year before, with the same club, he appeared in 76 games, went 642 innings, and had a 49-25 mark. He also went over the 500 inning mark in a single season once again, and three times went over the 400 inning mark before he closed out his career in 1891 with Cincinnati, pitching 204 innings at age 38.

They say Old Hoss never had a sore arm. Of course, he did pitch underhand. Which gives you a fair idea of about how long the Cubs' Ted Abernathy might last.

★ ★ ★

Ted Williams was quoted by the Associated Press last week as saying that Pete Rose could be baseball's first .400 hitter since Williams himself. Williams said that Rose had a chance because he can run and hit to all fields and because he's a switch-hitter.

Which shows you how great Williams was. He couldn't run, was strictly a pull hitter, and hit from only one side.

The late Freddie Hutchinson once told a coach friend of ours that baseball trades are seldom made to gain quality — only to get rid of problems.

The recent Orlando cepeda, joe torre trade, seems to be a classic example. Basedon the records, it really seems to make no sense. Cepeda had his first really bad season last year. The previous year he was MVP. He's only 31 (which for a slugger is young) and his knee problems are apparently now minimal. More important, the Cardinals don't really have anyone to take his place at first base . . . except, of course, Torre.

While it's true that Torre has had two sub-par seasons in a row due mainly to injuries; while it's true that he might have been one of those early maturers who's breaking down and that it now might be a good time to get rid of him, he is only 28, young enough to bounce back. He's still a fine catcher, and his "bad" year last season consisted of a .270 plus batting average and over 50 RBI's, totals which only a few catchers — only a few hitters at any position— could match last year.

So what's been accomplished? Apparently the Cards and Braves have traded right-handed slugging first basemen (a position which Torre has played and will mainly play for the Cardinals), both still relatively young, both with some history of crippling injuries, both still better than the average player even during "bad" seasons. It seems rather an inane trade.

But not if you've read reports out of spring training, Torre had been fueding with General Manager Paul Richards all winter ostensibly over a proposed pay cut. He said in no uncertain terms that he wanted out, that he doesn't like Richards personally. And Richards said some pretty nasty things about Torre. Cepeda, from more subtle reports, not only held out but was apparently brooding for some reason or another, having his tantrums, sulking, as he did with the Giants.

It was a trade of convenience for both clubs.

Latest National Hockey League statistics show that the Oaks have a slightly better record against Eastern Division Clubs — that's the old, established, tough league — than than they do in their own Western Division, which is the weaker expansion division. Another mark on that side of the ledger which says that many individuals and teams react better when competition is keener.

Remember that piece we did a few columns back about the Stanford kids who had never heard of Frankie Albert? We've gotten word that that particular group with which we conversed is now eight-balled by the jock members of their dining club who feel they've been disgraced, because THEY'VE certainly heard of Frankie Albert and even Ernie Nevers, Hank Luisetti, not to mention Jim Plunkett, Herbert Hoover and Leland Stanford . . . to give an indication of the intellectual versatility of Stanford athletes.

El Camino High Hires McCormick

Tom McCormick, former assistant football coach for the Minnesota Vikings and Green Bay Packers, was named head football coach of El Camino High School in South San Francisco Friday.

The announcement was made by Bob Keropian, El Camino High School principal at a press conference this morning.

McCormick, who quit the Green Bay Packers after Vince Lombardi resigned two years ago, is returning to the job he held at El Camino before he moved into professional football. He replaces Bob Sexton.

McCormick is the second "name" coach to be hired at El Camino High School. Rene Herrerias, former University of California basketball coach, is now head basketball coach at El Camino.

Area Pep-Girl Competition At Westmoor

High schools in the North Peninsula League athletic division will compete for honors of a more feminine concern at the first Westmoor Invitational Pep-girl Competition April 11, at 8 p.m. in Westmoor's boys' gym.

The event is open to the public. Proceeds from the five-cent admission charge will be added to the Daly City Information and Referral Center fund, Westmoor's school project for this year.

El Camino, Half Moon Bay, Jefferson, Oceana, Terra Nova, Serramonte, South City, and Westmoor High School pep-girls will perform routines to be judged by pep-girls from Mission and George Washington High Schools and College of San Mateo.

Trophies will be awarded for first, second, and third places on the basis of appearance, over-all spirit, and originality of routine.

CSM Mermen Win Eighth

College of San Mateo's unbeaten swimming team continues to excell against the best in Northern California junior college swimming.

Wednesday the Bulldogs turned in six lifetime best in dunkin Valley Conference leader San Joaquin Delta, 69-42. That makes the Mateans 8-0 overall. They're also 3-0 in the Golden Gate Conference entering tomorrow afternoon's 3:30 meet with visiting City College of San Francisco.

Delta's record dropped to 7-2 — their only other loss coming from co-GGC leader Diablo Valley, 60-51, in another practice meet.

Misfits Lead In Volleyball

The Daly City Recreation Department's Spring Co-Rec Volleyball League had another week of net play as the Real Somoans, of the "A" Division, dominated their league with a two out of three game victory over Alan Segal's Jets.

In the "B" Division, Kerry and Janice Bailly, with the help of Josie Torres, Chris Southland and Tom and Nancy Gigliotti captured a three game victory over Louis Vasco's Rejects.

Meanwhile, Dan Emmett's Misfits spiked their way to a three game victory over Bonnie Kehoe's Bits and Pieces. This victory puts the Misfits in the lead in their division with a 5-1 record.

Bowling Notes

Westlake Bowl

Geri Friday rolled the first sanctioned six hundred series of her ten-year bowling career last Thursday morning in the Holy Rollers League and to "keep her cool" she knitted between taking her turn on the lanes. Starting with a 220 game, she jumped to 230 in the second game and finished with 163 for a 613 series 160 pins over her average of 151. Geri also bowls in the Tuesday night Ladies Invitational League.

Frank "The Barber" Digerolomo led the Thursday night Lake Merced Handicap League as he rolled a 628 series on a high game of 235.

Tom McCue again topped the Southwest Handicap League, this time with games of 218-210 and 212 for a 640 series.

In the Safeway Sleepers League, Gwen Furnari led the ladies with a 184 game and 494 series while Frank Hee's 231 game and 625 series topped the men.

Peg Bouska was the leading lady in the St. Thomas More League shooting a 198 gam nd 519 series.

Helen Lugo and Jack Brown topped the Southgate Mixed Fives League as Helen shot a 195 game and 504 series and Jack a 614 series on games of 222-192 and 200.

Vi Campbell rolled a 536 series in the Tuesday Rebels League which was 143 pins over her average. Nan Rodgers led the scorers for the day with a 216 game and 554 series.

Secretary Joe Maurino came close to the seven hundred mark as he led the 860 American Scratch League with a great 684 series. Joe started with 226, jumped to 256 in the second game and finished with 202.

The Summer Jubilee program has created a great deal of interest around Westlake as leagues of fours are being formed for each night of the week. There will be men's, women's and mixed foursomes competing with one of every four teams qualifying for a free entry in the Jubilee Tournament in which this year's first prize was $1,000 and fifty-third place paid $100.

Two ladies shot well over their averages Wednesday morning when Alice Masini topped her average by 118 pins in the Morning Glories League and Cleo Patch shot 149 pins over her average in the Park Merced League. Alice, with a 146 average, shot 196 and 556 while Cleo shot 186 and 548 while carrying a 133 average.

Walt McGough's 175-225 and 201 games gave him a 602 average which topped the Westmoor Handicap League for the week.

"Jumpin Joe" Sirianni led the men in the Mixed-up Fives League as he posted a 604 series on games of 197-196 and 211 as Bertha Bourboulis led the ladies with a 208 game and 496 series.

In the Westlake Knolls League, Bob Betts took top honors with a 209 game and 583 series.

Junior Director Marge Brown reports entries are being received from all parts of northern California for the Junior Easter Classic now in progress and running until April 6.

Lila Garcia with 169-500 and Stan Pudlo with a 237 game and 599 series were high for the week in the Pfizer and Friends League.

Scorekeepers are needed for the Twelfth Naval District Tournament which will be held at Westlake on April 8-9 and 10. Each entrant will bowl 18 games starting each day at 8 p.m. Scorekeepers may register in advance by calling John Concilio at 756-577.

Sis Meehan led the ladies with 200-453 and Bert Vogh topped the men with 214-593 in the Park Plaza Mixed League.

Bobbie Perry again took leading lady honors in the St. Emydius Belles League Monday morning as she rolled a 187 game and 519 series.

SSF Playday For Girls

Volleyball, kickball, and softball games will be part of the scheduled activities Thursday when the South San Francisco Recreation Department presents a City-Wide Girls' Playday in the picnic area at Orange Memorial Park from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Other events will be 50 and 100-yard dashes, softball throw for distance, broad jump, a "cross-country" run, and an obstacle course. All South San Francisco girls from first grade through high school age are invited to attend. Prizes of ribbons and certificates will be awarded to winners of grade groups.

Girls are encouraged to bring a bag lunch. A hootenanny is planned as part of the after lunch entertainment by recreation leaders.

For further information, girls may contact the recreation leader at any city park or playground, or call the Recreation Department offices.

NPL Swimming Wins For Oceana, El Camino

Oceana and El Camino High Schools came up with impressive North Peninsula League swimming victories Thursday as both schools look towards ending the aqua-domination of South San Francisco.

The Colts, who have already downed South City this year, smashed undermanned Terra Nova, with only five varsity swimmers, 82-11. The Colts took every first place there was and won a partially completed "C" meet, 28-8. The Tigers took the "B" competition 70-8.

John Gradwohl set a new school record in the 440-yard freestyle event with a 4:59.1 clocking to pace Oceana to its varsity win. The highlight of the "B" meet was the Jefferson 200-yard freestyle relay squad taking an uncontested victory but setting a new school record of 1:47.1.

'DIFFICULT' PROFESSION

A Testy NPL Track Meet

With the possible exception of Kansas lumberjacks and Berkeley barbers, there are few professions more difficult these days than coaching a track and field team in the North Peninsula League.

At least, that's how it seemed on Friday, when missing athletes and bad weather wrought various havoc on a pair of dual meets and a shortage of clerical help, no less, made for a testy triangular at testy old Half Moon Bay.

The missing athletes — seniors who have decided that track season calls for undue work — again plagued the Jefferson Indians, who suffered a 121-10 varsity loss to the Westmoor Rams. Jeff, a team compiled primarily of inexperienced underclassmen, got but four third places and a pair of seconds as Westmoor slammed 10 events and both relays.

El Camino also suffered the effect of a partly-depleted roster along with cold, windy, foggy weather in a 71-65 loss to Oceana that was decided in the mile relay. "Our straight races end up right in our wind gulch," said El Camino coach Jim Stireman, "and it almost makes it embarrassing to call in our times, because the kids are really better than they sound."

The loss was El Camino's second in two NPL meets and a successful debut for the coastside Sharks, whose Ernie Ribera ran a 4:48.6 mile.

Half Moon Bay staged a double dual—triangular with Terra Nova and Serramonte that proved perplexing, for a time, to Ron Shoemaker, the Cougars' coach. Shoemaker, who could have used a few assistants, had to keep all the meet results alone, in addition to the considerable demand of running the affair.

When it was all finally over, Terra Nova had scored a 97-35 win over Half Moon Bay and had blistered the neophyte Serramonte thinclads, 127-7.

Tim Ficken was a double winner for the Tigers, taking the 400 in 53.0 and the 220 in 24 flat. Ron Batchelor and Dallas Conley were double winners for Half Moon Bay.

Bearcat Netters Defeat Falcons

The San Mateo High School tennis team advanced its Mid Peninsula League record to 2-1 on Friday with a 5-2 victory over Crestmoor on the loser's courts.

In the top match of the day, San Mateo's Fred Gorin battled to a 6-4, 4-6, 6-4 decision over Crestmoor's Mike George.

S.M. High Scuttles Crestmoor

San Mateo High School's swim forces rebounded admirably on Frida following Thursday's narrow loss to Hillsdale, but it will take more than one victory to catch the front-running Knights.

Coach Tom Holman's Bearcats, showing no effects of Thursday's 47-38 loss gave the Knight's the edge for the 1969 Mid-Peinsula League title, scuttled Crestmoor, 62-24, in the Bearcats' pool.

However, Hillsdale continued to set the pace with a resounding 74-12 victory over Burlingame in the latter's pool. In the other MPL contest, Mills defeated Aragon, 46-39.

The Bearcats were paced by freshman Kip Bennett, who was San Mateo's only double winner for the day. Bennett won the 200 free in 2:04.7 and then came back to annex the 400 free with a good 4:24.0 effort.

The victory gave San Mateo a 3-1 MPL mark and a 6-1 over-all record. In the frosh-soph meet, San Mateo's Chuck Freeman set a new standard in the 140-yard individual medley in leading the junior Bearcats to a 64-13 win. Freeman was clocked in 1:39.7.

In Hillsdale's victory, again it was Jeff Lamb, aided by Eric Morris, who paced the Knights to their third straight MPL victory against no losses.

Lamb and Morris each had two wins for the Knights, who were recording their second conference victory in as many days.

Lamb annexed the 50-yard free (24.6) and then came back to win the 100 free (53.5), while Morris won the 200 IM (2:22.2) and the 100 back (1:08.2). The top effect of the day was turned in by Hilisdale's John Prosser, who grabbed the 200 free with a good 2:03-flat clocking.

Vance Schram and Les Loomis each doubled to lead the Knight Frosh-Soph to a 63-14 win over the junior Panthers.

Triumvirate Of Doublers Aids Ashby

South San Francisco High Schoool's track and field fortunes took another step forward on Friday as the Warriors bested Riordan, 80-62, on the wind-swept and foggy City College of San Francisco field.

Again it was Ashland Whitfield, Phil Andre and Ray Dutton leading the way as coach Marv Ashby's forces marched to their fifth dual meetwin in six outings.

Whitfield won the 120 highs in 15 seconds flat and then came back to register a 10.3 clocking in winning the century dash. Dutton annexed the long jump with a good 21-1½ effort and also won the triple jump with a 40-2 mark. Andre doubled in the 440 (52.5) and 220 (23.4).

Ashby rated the victory "an overall team performance" and added that Jim Olmo's 50-6½ heave in the shotput was one of the Warriors' high points of the afternoon.

Cap Names Two to Model Legislature

Capuchino High School has selected its representatives to the Annual Boys State and Girls State Conferences sponsored by the American Legion and American Legion Auxiliary. The girls' representative is Patricia Clayton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clayton of 244 Helen Drive, Millbrae. Annette Cairo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis P. Cairo, 817 Tioga Drive, Millbrae, was named alternate to the convention.

Staven Banchero, currently vice president of the Student Body and son of Mr.and Mrs. Ernest Banchero of 131 Emalita Court, San Bruno, was named representative to Boys State. His alternate is Michael McHuge, son of Mrs. Heanne McHugh.

Students were selected for this honor on the basis of leadership potential, character and citizenship. The conference is a work and study program in government and community action. This is the sixteenth year that Capuchino High School has sent delegates to Boys and Girls State.

Thief Takes Puppies From Their Mother

The "Meanest Person in Town" award goes to the person who broke into the Steven Dennis Prima home on Vista Grande Avenue in Daly City Sunday and stole three pet German shephard puppies right out from under their mother.

Police said the three-week-old puppies were stolen after the puppynapper broke through a rear door of the home.

Police ask anyone having knowledge of the incident to contact them day or night.

Two Arrested In Building

Two men were arrested inside the KLH Research Development Corp. building on Geneva Avenue in Daly City while they were allegedly in the process of burglarizing the establishment early on Monday, police reported.

Daly City Police Sgt. Bob Ingbrigtsen and Officer Bob Dean said they discovered Alexandor Torres, 30, of San Francisco, and Thomas Vega, 21, South San Francisco, inside the building at 3:45 a.m.

Both were charged with burglary.

Police said an undetermined amount of stereo equipment was taken from the building before officers arrived.

Assailant Shoots as Woman Flees from Daly City Lot

A 23-year-old San Jose man was arrested by Daly City police early on Monday on charges stemming from an alleged assault on a young woman within two blocks of her home.

Victor Barndolino, 23, of 335 Bird Avenue, San Jose, was apprehended by police with the aid of two unidentified witnesses in the vicinity of Mission and Templeton avenues after a man allegedly tried to rape the woman in a vacant lot shortly after midnight.

According to police, the victim managed to tear away from her assailant and run screaming from the lot. The assailant pulled out a .22-caliber revolver and fired at the running woman.

The would-be victim told police she first spotted the suspect on a muni bus en route to Daly City from her job in San Francisco.

APRIL 26 PAGEANTRY

Pacifica Girls Compete for Title

The "Magic of Miss Pacifica" will touch one of these beautiful and talented contestants at Terra Nova April 26. The new Miss Pacifica will be selected after very keen competition in evening gown, talent and swimsuit.

"This year's production promises to be the best in the 13-year history of the pageant. Interest is very high, and a crowd of 2000 is expected," Pageant Executive Director, Stan vanderHule, said.

Special guest star will be Sharon Kay Terrill, Miss California.

Miss Pacificas on stage will include Aleena Branson 1968, Candy (Troy) Fuller 1966, and Theresa (Foley) Roberts 1964.

Musical direction will be handled by Jack Fisher and his orchestra, with the very talented and entertaining Fred La Cosse, acting as Master of Ceremonies.

The show is filled with beautiful music, the "Miss America Music." The 2½ hour show will be at Terra Nova High School, on an elaborate stage, designed especially for the pageant by Dennis King, and constructed by Challenge Homes.

The huge round stage will feature a 24-foot runway, and professional theatrical lighting designed by King and Bill Palmrose, local Jaycees.

Tickets are now on sale. Advance purchase is recommended because of the expected sell-out.

Last year the Miss Pacifica Pageant was awarded the "Best Pageant Production in the State of California" by the Miss California Pageant in Santa Cruz. Merv Marks, manager of the Bank of America, Pacific Manor Branch, is the Ticket Chairman. Tickets are available at the bank or any bank in the City of Pacifica. They may also be purchased from the contestants, members of the Pageant Committee, and at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Famous Funk & Wagnalls STANDARD REFERENCE Encyclopedia Volume...

384 PAGES OF VALUABLE FACTS, INTERESTING PICTURES, FULL-COLOR MAPS

VOLUME No. 1 ONLY 9¢

WITH ANY $3.00 FOOD PURCHASE

Why We Make This Amazing Offer

WE THINK every family should own a good authoritative encyclopedia—especially in homes where there are children of school age.

We believe the Funk & Wagnalls Standard Reference Encyclopedia is the ideal set because it is highly recommended for home and family use*, and we can make it available to you at a truly amazing price.

And, through our book-at-a-time plan, the small cost per book fits even the most modest budget...

VOLUMES 2-25 ONLY $1.69 EACH

BUILD YOUR SET A VOLUME OR TWO EACH WEEK

Huge Treasury of Knowledge —Magnificent Edition

Each volume has the contents of three ordinary books. The complete set contains SEVEN MILLION WORDS in all, in nearly ten thousand double-columned pages, covering over THIRTY THOUSAND different subjects embracing a condensation of all man's knowledge!

This Eldorado Deluxe Edition is really gorgeous, bound in creamy simulated leather, stamped in red, black and gold, with special end-papers, full-color frontispieces, thousands of photographs, drawings, and diagrams illustrating the text, and full-color maps of every country on the globe comprising a complete World Atlas. Most beautiful of all, the page-tops of all the volumes are gilded, as only really expensive books are gilded, making the set a superbly luxurious ornament for any home.

So, if you are delighted with Volume No. 1, be sure to build a complete set for your home—a volume or more every week!

OUR UNUSUAL PROPOSAL

To convince you that everything we say is true, we are willing to give you the handsomely bound, 384-page, illustrated, fact-filled Volume No. 1 for only 9¢ with any food purchase of $3.00 or more. Yes—for only 9¢ you can take home Volume No. 1 of the encyclopedia to examine at your leisure—to show to the other members of your family—to permit your children to get their teacher's approval.

Then, if you are delighted with the volume and want to own the other volumes of the set, they can be yours for only $1.69 each—a truly amazing value!

SUPPLY OF VOLUME NO. 1 IS LIMITED

The publishers of the encyclopedia have provided us with only a limited number of books to be given away at this unheard of price.

When they are gone, we can get no more. So to be sure to get your copy, please call at the store as soon as possible. If you wait too long, you may miss this opportunity forever.

THIS OFFER WILL NOT BE REPEATED AGAIN IN THIS AREA FOR AT LEAST ANOTHER YEAR—TAKE ADVANTAGE OF IT—WHILE YOU CAN!

 FOREMOST AUTHORITY SAYS—

"Recommended... Especially for Home and Family Use"

"Because of its wide coverage of information in factual and clearly-written, well-illustrated, succinct articles, and because of the convenience of its lightweight yet durable format, Funk & Wagnalls Standard Reference Encyclopedia is recommended for the purpose for which it is intended, that is, as a brief reference set, especially for home and family use."

From the review of the Subscription Books Committee within the AMERICAN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION*

This fine recommendation, of which we are proud, has been extended to NO OTHER ENCYCLOPEDIA SELLING FOR LESS THAN TWO AND A HALF TIMES THE PRICE AT WHICH THE FUNK & WAGNALLS IS NOW OFFERED.

A Beautiful Ham for Easter A La Francaise

Here is a new and delicious method of preparing the piece de resistance of your Easter Sunday dinner. We've taken our inspiration from the numerous recently published books on French cuisine everybody is buying and reading right now.

In France, one never encounters ham such as we prepare here — with brown sugar, cloves and pineapple. In fact, this combination of sweetness with the meat is not considered a good flavor combination by the French.

Instead, the ham is braised with aromatic herbs, flavorful vegetables and wine. (You can substitute cider or apple juice with very good results.) The sauce that accompanies the ham is wine flavored and some of this sauce is used in the final glazing to give a rich brown color and crispness to the succulent fat.

In France, they would use a great heavy casserole for the braising, but you can braise a ham in heavy duty aluminum foil with equally good results and much less work — we give the detailed directions.

Try this different way of preparing ham. We've tasted it, using a ham from the supermarket and find it produces a moist and juicy ham with the best flavor we've ever tasted.

Garnish the ham with freshly cooked baby white onions and carrots, and decorate with sauteed mushrooms. Spinach, prepared in the French way, would be the perfect accompaniment.

Easter Ham, French Style

- 8 to 14 lb. fully cooked ham
- 1 cup sliced onions
- 1 cup sliced carrots
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 cups Madeira or sherry wine or cider
- 6 parsley sprigs
- 1 bay leaf, crumbled
- ½ teaspoon thyme

Trim the skin from ham and trim off fat, leaving a thin layer about ¼ inch in thickness. Place a large sheet of heavy duty aluminum foil in a shallow roasting pan and place ham in center. Place carrots and onions over and around ham and pour over 1½ cups of the wine or cider. Sprinkle with the parsley and thyme and bay leaf. Close the foil by bringing up two long ends and overlapping on top of ham. Close open ends by turning up the foil to hold in wine and juices. Wrap loosely and do not seal airtight.

Place the ham in a preheated 350 degree F. oven. Bake a whole ham for 2½ hours; a half ham for 1¾ hours.

Remove the ham from the oven and turn back the foil. With a large spoon or bulb baster, remove all the juices from the foil to a small saucepan. Skim off the fat and simmer slowly until reduced to 1 cup. Add 1 cup canned beef bouillon and thicken the sauce with 1 tablespoon cornstarch mixed with remaining half cup of wine or cider. Add ¼ cup chopped mushrooms, sauteed.

Use a cookie cutter and score the ham fat in circles. Spread a little of the sauce on the ham and return to the oven with the foil open. Continue baking just long enough to glaze the ham to a rich golden brown. Insert a meat thermometer in the thickest part of the ham, if you wish. Meat authorities recommend heating a ready-to-eat ham to an internal temperature of 125 degrees F. Bake cook-before-eating ham to 160 degrees F; country ham, 175 degrees F. if they are used.

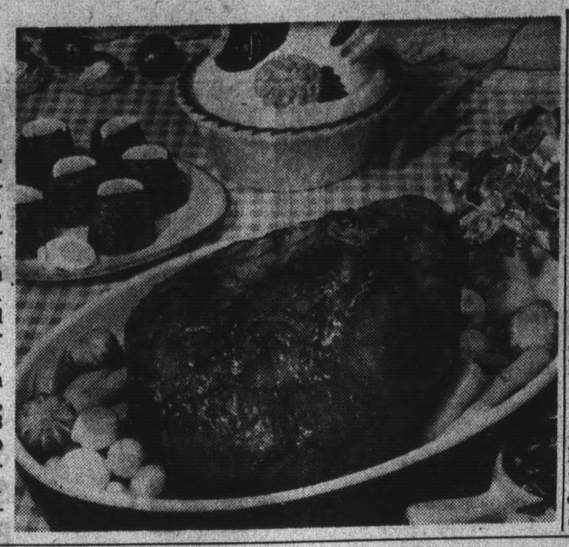
Discard the flavoring vegetables and transfer ham to serving dish. Ring the ham with freshly cooked vegetables and serve the sauce separately.

Foil frill: fold heavy duty foil double to about 6x18 inches, with a piece of tissue paper inside. From the folded edge, cut in strips about ½ inch apart to within 2 inches of open side. Open out, discard tissue, and reverse the fold so strips "pouf" out. Wind around shank bone of ham.

Butter-Creamed Spinach

- 2 lbs. fresh spinach or 2 packages frozen spinach
- 3 tablespoons butter
- 1 tablespoon flour
- ¾ cup heavy cream
- salt, pepper, nutmeg

If fresh spinach is used, remove coarse stems and wash thoroughly. Fill a large saucepot with boiling water and add 1 teaspoon salt. Drop in the spinach, keeping the water boiling rapidly and boil for about 4 minutes. Quickly turn out into a colander, rinse with cold water, then squeeze out the water thoroughly with the back of a spoon. Thaw frozen spinach. Place on a chopping board and chop fine. Melt the butter in a skillet, add the spinach and cook and stir until all water is evaporated. Sprinkle with the flour; then add the cream a little at a time, continuing to cook and stir for 3 to 4 minutes. Add seasonings to taste. Mold the spinach in custard cups, packing firmly. Turn out and garnish with hard-cooked egg.



It's All In Supermart

Grocery dollars were used to buy foods, that is, something to eat.

Now, those dollars spent at the grocery store are used not only to feed us but also to clothe us, amuse and educate us (with books, magazines or records), cleanse us, medicate, perfume or makeup the face, clean the house and provide utensils for cooking and serving.

Out of every dollar's worth that fills the supermarket basket, 20 cents goes for soaps, detergents, potted plants, socks, even multi-volume encyclopedias.

Seasoned Spinach Is Much Better

Spinach seasoned this way is so much better than plain!

Minute Steaks Potatoes
Spinach Anglaise Acorn Squash
Fruit Shortcake Beverage

SPINACH ANGLAISE

- 1 large bag (20 ounces) rfesh spinach
- 3 tablespoons butter
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon sugar

Remove tough stem ends from spinach leaves; thoroughly wash spinach in cold water; turn into a large saucepot. Over moderate heat, turning with a long-handled fork, briefly cook spinach in the water clinging to the leaves until wilted but still bright green. Turn into a colander to drain. With a kitchen scissors cut the leaves coarsely. Put the butter into the clean dry pot and let stand over low heat until it turns golden brown. Mix in spinach, then salt and sugar. Serve at once. Makes six servings.

Coney Island Rolls–So It's Far Away!

The famous beach resort with its roller coasters, ferris wheels and hot dog stands is closed all winter, but let's have lunch a la Coney Island anyhow.

Coney Island Rolls
Boardwalk Salad-x
Candied Apples

CONEY ISLAND ROLLS

- 4 frankfurters, split lengthwise
- 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
- 1 can (11 ounces) condensed chili beef soup
- 1-3 cup water
- 4 frankfurter rolls, split, and toasted
- 2 tablespoons chopped onion

Brown franks in butter; add soup and water. Heat; stir now and then. Place franks in rolls, spoon soup over. Garnish with chopped onion. Serves 4.

The Grecians Have a Knack for Cooking

Some of the most delicious recipes from Greece stem from the simplest of beginnings. The Grecians have the knack of putting together a number of ingenious recipes based on everyday ingredients.

Undoubtedly, this is due to the fact that to the ebullient Greek, eating is a daily celebration of an inborn lust for living. In a recent competition, sponsored by the Potato Chip Institute International, one of the finalists was a delightful Grecian, George Niarchos.

Formerly an assistant professor in marketing and now a practicing sociologist, George is a serious cook, often preparing meals at home three days a week. His "Sarmathes" or Cabbage Rolls, a favorite with his family and friends, won George the second prize in the country.

SARMATHES
(Cabbage Rolls)

1 head cabbage, medium size
1 large onion, chopped
1 lb. ground meat
½ cup rice
1½ cup potato chips crushed
3 tbsp. parsley or mint, chopped
1 can tomatoes
1 tsp. lemon juice
½ tsp. cinnamon
Salt and pepper to taste

1. Remove outer leaves of the cabbage and lay in bottom of pot or pan being used.
2. Remove as much core as possible from center, and drop head of cabbage in kettle of boiling water into which a tsp. of lemon juice and a little salt has been added.
3. Cook about five minutes or until leaves are slightly soft.
4. Do not overcook.
5. Carefully remove leaves one at a time. Trim heavy center vein to facilitate folding and rolling.
6. Into each leaf place about a tablespoon of the chopped meat which has been combined with the crushed potato chips, washed rice, onions chopped and seasonings. Carefully roll up, using toothpicks, if necessary, and arrange in a pot or baking pan. Cover with sliced or canned tomatoes and a little water.
7. Cook over a slow fire or bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) fifty minutes until done.

In addition to his interest in cooking, George has a number of other pastimes. He is currently working towards a doctorate degree. He's a music lover and plays his violin religiously. He and his wife enjoy the opera and attend whenever possible. And when time permits, George even tries his hand at writing. It's no wonder they say the Grecians love life!

CRUNCHY ALMONDS

For a fancy party dessert, coat scoops of ice cream with toasted chopped almonds and serve with chilled cherry pie filling spooned over.

This Easter Cake Is English

When Easter comes around in England, Simnel Cakes start baking. Chockfull of raisins, currants and candied fruit, and flavored and covered with almond paste, this is quite a cake.

Simnel Cake takes quite a bit of doing, so if you decide to make it study the recipe before you start.

SIMNEL CAKE

2 tablespoons light corn syrup
½ cup firmly packed Almond Paste (see below)
¼ cup butter or margarine
1 egg, beaten
2 teaspoons cornstarch
½ teasopon grated lemon rind
1 cup seedless raisins
1 cup golden raisins
1 cup currants
½ cup chopped candied fruit
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1¾ cups sifted flour
¼ cup cornstarch
1 teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon cloves
¼ teaspoon alspice
¾ cup butter or margaine
¾ cup sugar
¼ cup light corn syrup
3 eggs
Almond Frostin (see below)

Grease a 9-inch spring form pan; line bottom with wax paper.

In a small saucepan over medium heat, bring to a boil the 2 tablespoons corn syrup. Pour hot syrup over Almond Paste and blend until smooth. Add the ¼ cup butter, the beaten egg, the 2 teaspoons cornstarch and the ½ teaspoon lemon rind, beating well after each additon; set aside.

Mix together the raisins, currants, candied fruit, the 1 teaspoon lemon rind and ¼ cup of the flour; set aside.

Sift together the remaining 1½ cups flour, the ¼ cup cornstarch, baking powder, salt and spices.

Cream the ¾ cup butter and the sugar; stir in the ¼ cup light corn syrup. Add the 3 eggs, 1 at a time, mixing well after each additon. Stir in flour-spice mixture; fold in flour-fruit mixture.

Pour one half batter into prepared pan. With wooden spoon or rubber spatula, spread Almond Paste mixture evenly over batter. Spoon remaining batter over Almond Paste mixture. Bake in pre-heated 300-degree oven until cake springs back when lightly touched with finger — about 2 hours. Wrap in foil or plastic film and let stand several days to ripen.

Frost and decorate with Almond Frosting.

ALMOND FROSTING

½ cup light corn syrup
½ to ¾ cup firmly packed Almond Paste (see below)
2 cups sifted confectioners' (powdered) sugar (about)

In a small saucepan, bring corn syrup to a boil. Pour over Almond Paste; blend until smooth. Gradually add sugar to make easily handled frosthing. Shape 11 (¾-inch) balls.

Place remaining frosting between 2 pieces of wax paper lightly dusted with confectioners' sugar. Roll out to a 9¼-inch round. Trim edge with pastry cutter, if desired. Peel off wax paper and put frosting on top of cake. Decorate with balls.

ALMOND PASTE
For Use in Simnel Cake and Almond Frosting

1 can (6 ounces) shelled almonds, blanched and ground (about 1½ cups)
½ cup confectioners' (powdered) sugar
¼ cup granulated sugar
1 egg yolk
½ teaspoon almond extract

Mix together ground almonds and sugars. Add egg yolk and almond extract; toss with fork until mixture is moist. (If necessary add 1 to 2 teaspoons water.) With hands, press into ball. Knead lightly to make smooth. Shape into ball. Use ½ cup as directed for Simnel Cake recipe and ½ to ¾ cup as directed for Almond Frosting recipe.

Makes about 1¼ cups paste.

Economical Luncheon Dish

Convenient Spanish rice mix inspired this economical luncheon dish. Prepare 1 package (6 or 7¼ ounces) Spanish rice mix according to package directions using 2 cans (8 ounces each) or 1 can (15 ounces) tomato sauce with tomato bits and 1 cup water for liquid specified. Meanwhile, cut 6 hard-cooked eggs lengthwise in half.

Mash yolks with 3 tablespoons mayonnaise until smooth; refill egg whites. Place rice in oiled 1½-quart baking dish; arrange egg halves on rice. Sprinkle with ¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese. Bake at 425 degrees for 15 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

Mexican Foods Sales Found Climbing Result: New Products Are Marketed

To keep up with an ever-increasing demand for Mexican style foods, Schilling Division of McCormick & Company, Inc., San Francisco, is now introducing two Mexican style dinners — Taco Casserole and Tamale Pie. Surveys show the sales of Mexican foods are up 50 per cent over last year. Research has shown that over 51 per cent of U.S. households serve Mexican style foods.

When these new products were test-marketed, it was found consumers liked them because they added a new variety to the menu. They also like the ease and speed of preparation.

You add ground beef to both these products. Consumers say they wanted to add the fresh beef. With this exception all the other ingredients for preparing the dinners are in the box.

The Tamale Pie box contains a package of seasonings, a can of corn, a can of tomato sauce and a package of cornmeal. The cornmeal is used to make mush to be spread over the meat mixture.

In the box of Taco Casserole there is a package of seasonings, a can of tomato sauce and a package of triangular-shaped tortillas. The tortillas are folded into the meat mixture just before putting it in the oven.

Both products have been Americanized and are slightly mild in flavor. Mexican foods may capture the flavor of Americans as did pizza.

A salad is all that is needed to complete the menu with either product, and they make four generous servings.

TACO CASSEROLE

Package contains:
- 1 ½-ounce envelope Taco Casserole Seasoning Mix
- 1 8-ounce an Mexican Style Tomato Sauce
- 1 3-ounce bag baked tortilla chips

You add — 1 pound ground beef. Cooking time is 30 minutes — 15 minutes on top of the range, 15 minutes in the oven. Makes four generous servings.

TAMALE PIE

Package contains:
- 1 ¼-ounce envelope Tamale Pie Seasoning Mix
- 1 8-ounce can whole kernel corn
- 1 8-ounce can Mexican Style Tomato Sauce
- 1 4-ounce envelops cornmeal topping

You add — 1 pound ground beef. Cooking time is 40 minutes — 15 minutes on top the range, 25 minutes in the oven. Makes four generous servings.

Both products are an Americanized approach to Mexican food and were intentionally developed with a mild flavor. With the recent increase in popularity of Mexican orientated foods, recipes, restaurants and taco drive-ins in the United States, the consumer now has a convenience food to prepare in her own kitchen.

TACO SEASONING MIX
- 1 ¼-ounce foil package — enough to season 1 pound ground beef to fill 8 to 10 taco shells.

ENCHILADA SAUCE MIX
- 1 ½-ounce foil package — enough to season sauce for 6 enchiladas.

In both products you add ground beef. Tomato sauce is added to the Enchilada Sauce Mix. Both require tortillas — canned, frozen or fresh may be used.

With the ever-increasing demand for foods with a Mexican flavor, these two new mixes help round out the selection to the consumer. No longer does Mexican cooking take long preparation time. No longer does menu selection have to be limited. A whole new flavor avenue

Adaptation Of Recipe Of French Chef

This recipe was adapted from one given by a famous French chef.

Roast Lamb Boulestin
Steamed Rice Asparagus
Chocolate Mousse Beverage

ROAST LAMB BOULESTIN
- ½ leg of lamb, about 4½ pounds
- 1 cup dry vermouth
- 1 small onion, peeled and sliced
- 1 small carrot, pared and sliced
- 1 tablespoon minced parsley
- 1 bay leaf
- ½ teaspoon thyme
- ¼ teaspoon peppercorns
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 can (10½ ounces) condensed chicken broth
- 1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
- 1 tablespoon currant jelly

Cut away most fat from lamb but do not disturb the string tieing it. Mix together the next seven ingredients and pour over lamb. Cover and refrigerate overnight, basting a few times. Remove from marinade. 'zsave itz and roast lamb in a ewtddegree oven until medium well done at 170 degrees on a meat thermometer — about two hours Cut away strings from lamb and remove it to serving platter; keep warm.

Meanwhile, simmer marinade including vegetables and seasonings until liquid is reduced to about ¼ cup; strain. Melt butter; stir in flour; remove from heat.

Gradually stir in the ¼ cup strained marindae and undiluted chicken broth, keeping smooth. Whisk in mustard and currant jelly. Cook, stirring constantly, over moderately low heat until thickened. Pour off fat from roasting pan. Add sauce. Stir over low heat to get up drippings. Pour through fine-mesh strainer. Reheat and serve with lamb.

BUFFET SALAD

Lightly coat drained canned cut Blue Lake green beans, canned sliced carrots and party-sliced beets with a dill weed and lemon juice-seasoned mayonniase. Turn into a punch bowl lined with large crinkly leaves of Savoy cabbage.

EASTER EGGS — They're easy to make and can be varied to suit your fancy.

Try Making Your Own Easter Eggs

Go to it, all of you handicraft fans. Make your own Fondant Easter Eggs. They'll look interesting as can be as a centerpiece for the holiday table.

This is the easy kind of fondant to make. No candy thermometer needed. Granulated sugar, corn syrup and butter or margarine are brought to a boil and confectioners' sugar and dry milk solids are stirred in. Next, off heat, the flavoring and coloring are added. Then the fondant is cooled and finally the eggs are shaped. Whip up any kind of eggs you like — varying the technique to produce chocolate, masaic or decorated goodies.

FONDANT EASTER EGGS

1 pound confectioners' (powdered) sugar, sifted
½ cup nonfat dry milk solids
½ cup granulated sugar
½ cup light corn syrup
1-3 cup butter or margarine
1 teaspoon vanilla or peppermint flavoring
Food coloring

Thoroughly mix together confectioners' sugar and dry milk.

In a heavy saucepan, mix together granulated sugar, corn syrup, and butter. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until sugar is dissolved and mixture just boils. Stir in confectioners' sugar mixture, 1-3 at a time. Remove from heat. Stir in flavoring and, if used, food coloring. Stir until a small amount of mixture mounds slightly when dropped from spoon. Pour into greased pan. When cool enough to handle, knead until smooth.

Makes 1½ pounds, enough for about 1½ dozen eggs.

CHOCOLATE FONDANT: Omit dry milk and sift ¼ cup cocoa into confectioners' sugar. Follow recipe above. Chocolate Fondant may be formed into eggs, or used for pieces to mix with white fondant.

MOSAIC EGGS: Divide fondant and tint different colors of fondant, form with hands into a smooth egg-shape piece. A swirled effect can be made using two colors and mixing into a flowing pattern.

DECORATED EGGS: Shape eggs using white or pastel-color fondant. With a small-tip decorator tube, pipe ccolorful flowers or designs out of tinted confectioners' sugar frosting.

Bake Fruit Bread For The Holiday

For a German holiday Fruit Bread, one of the best recipes we have ever tried for Hutzelbrot comes from a fine cookbook called "The Art of German Cooking" by Betty Wason (Doubleday).

Mrs. Wason's recipes were acquired when she traveled in Germany, and besides giving cooking directions, she gives her readers excellent notes on the background and development of German cooking—from classic Teutonic dishes to international recipes that have been added to German cuisine since World War II. If you try Betty Wason's Hutzelbrot, you'll be pleased to discover that it has delightful flavor, a firm texture and keeps vell.

BETTY WASON'S HUZELBROT (Fruit Bread)

2 cups mixed dried fruit, soaked
2 envelopes active dry yeast
½ cup warm water
½ cup sugar
6 to 7 cups sifted all-purpose flour (or us ½ all-purpose flour, ½ rye flour)
¼ teaspoon ground cardamom
½ teaspoon powdered coriander
¼ teaspoon powdered anise or fennel
⅛ teaspoon powdered cloves
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup butter or shortening
1 cup chopped hazelnuts or walnuts
1 cup golden raisins
1-3 cup chopped candied orange peel
¼ cup kirschwasser, brandy or rum

Cook the dried fruit in water to cover until soft; drain, saving 1 cup of the liquid. Chop the fruit finely, discarding any hard bits of the fruit or pits.

Dissolve yeast in warm water with sugar. Sift and measure the flour; if using part rye flour, thoroughly blend the two. Add spices and salt to the flour. Place half the flour in a large mixing bowl, make a well in the center, add the dissolved yeast and the reserved liquid from fruit which has been heated, then cooled to lukewarm. Add melted butter or shortening. Mix until well blended; let rise 15 minutes in warm place to form a light sponge. Toss 1 cup of remaining flour with chopped fruit and nuts. Add this and rest of flour to the sponge along with the Kirschwasser.

Beat until smooth; turn out onto floured board, knead until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl, let rise in warm place 45 minutes to an hour until doubled. Punch down, knead again, divide dough in half. Shape into 2 round balls. Place on greased baking sheet, let rise again.

Preheat oven to 375 degrees. When loaves are again doubled, place in oven, bake until crust is golden and crisp, 45 minutes to one hour. After removing from pans but while bread is warm, brush with a little of the liquid from the dried fruit.

It's Ham And Yams For Easter

STUFFED YAMS

6 medium yams (about 2½ pounds)
¼ cup butter, at room temperature
½ teaspoon salt
8 ounces (8 large) moist soft dried figs, finely chopped (1 cup)
Grated rind of one lemon
Sweet sherry

Scrub yams in cold water and dry. Bake in a preheated 400-degree oven for 15 minutes; reduce heat to 375 degrees and bake until te der — about 45 minutes longer.

Cut a thin lengthwise slice from top of each yam. Scoop out pulp, leaving a thin layer of the pulp, if necessary, to have sturdy shells.

Mash yam pulp with butter and salt; mix in figs and lemon rind. Add enough sherry to give pleasantly soft (but not soupy) texture.

Spoon mixture back into shells. If yams are not to be finished right away, cover and leave at room temperature for several hours. Bake in a preheated 375-degree oven until thoroughly hot — about 30 minutes.

Note: For this recipe we used the dried figs that are soft and ready to eat — not the dried figs that need to be soaked or cooked before eating.

Makes 8 servings.

BRIGHT LIGHTS BY LLOYD ★ JOHNSON

Restaurateurs Plan Special Easter Menus

For most Americans, thriving prosperity is a way of life. And this standard is never more obvious than when viewing the abundance of leisure available in the Bay Area. This Easter weekend will again prove to be no exception. Countless restaurateurs and club owners are going all out to provide patrons with the very best in food and entertainment — and Bright Lights' pages offer a choice selection of the best. As we enter the Easter weekend, let us all pause and reflect upon the past few days, which have been a time of sorrow for all thinking Americans. Regardless of race or creed, we need to stand united with only one goal in mind — peace among men. Besides being an important religious holiday, let us hope that this Easter will be a turning point for future years; that peace among brothers and nations will prevail. Visit the church of your choice and be grateful of your American heritage. Wishing one and all a Joyous Easter.—Lloyd Johnson.

Jefferson High Trustee Candidates 'Speak'

QUESTION 1 — In your opinion what is the role of a board member?

James D. Ayers:
He must truly sense his position as trustee of the community, that they have placed their trust in him. He must ask of, listen to, and inform the electorate, the faculty and the students, in order to solve problems before they become crisis.

Russell Chiosso:
I believe the board should serve to ensure that the affairs of the district function efficiently, and to help set the policy of the district.

Elio A. Fontana (incumbent):
To develop policy, to be aware of educational developments and innovations for better education, (and) to be consistently aware of educational costs and exercise economies.

Ronald J. Marren:
It is the responsibility of a board member to oversee the operations of the school district and work for constructive change within the district. He should keep his door and his mind open to proposals from both school personnel and the lay community. He should not, however serve as a rubber stamp for any one or any group.

Jane Powell:
The role of a board member is to create the proper educational environment and to exert a wholesome influence on the community. The board's need is to improve the level of public understanding about the goals and processes of public education.

Robert P. Runneals:
I believe that a school board member is a representative of the parents and the electorate and, as such, should be responsible to them in providing the best possible education for their children. In the past year we have seen several examples of a lack of this responsiveness.

Edward Solomon (incumbent):
To establish the policies and procedures under which the district is to run its schools.

QUESTION 2 — What are the most serious problems in education facing your district in the next four years?

James Ayers:
The failure of many of us to accept the fact that more basic changes have occurred in the world in the past 30 years than in recorded history. This places upon us a responsibility to vitalize our educational system and keep it current.

Russell Chiosso:
The securing of finances in order to maintain the best possible faculty and administration.

Elio Fontana:
Militancy in our schools, starting at teacher levels; the increasing cost of education, requiring economy measures; more stringent teacher applicant screening to insure teacher quality.

Ronald Marren:
The financial crisis. This must be solved at once; student problems. We must establish a student human relations commission to work with the board; bilingual education. The students must not be denied opportunities due to a language barrier. The program must be expanded.

Jane Powell:
Finances — the inequity of our present system that puts the burden of education on local funding. We are now deriving 74.2 percent from local taxing, 2.6 percent federal and 23.2 percent from state to educate our youngsters. Since the state Constitution makes education a state function, we should have a 50-50 partnership, financially.

Robert Unneals:
The financial problems are probably the major ones to be faced. However, I think the problems of discipline and control of the students should not be overlooked. Education should be relevant, but need not be overly permissive.

Edward Solomon:
Financial support, recruitment and retention of qualified and classified personnel, narcotics, class offerings geared for the year 2000.

QUESTION 3 — Do you feel there are any economies that could be effected in your district that would not affect the quality of education?

James Ayers:
Yes. By making a concentrated effort toward more central purchasing and making everyone concerned aware of reasons for economies. Each trustee should examine district expenditures and raise questions, whenever he feels funds could be used more economically.

Russell Chiosso:
Unfortunately, I feel that our district has practiced all possible economies. Any further restrictions would be bound to affect the quality of education.

Elio Fontana:
Institute realistic class size district-wide; extreme attention to future tax over-rides; provide a true and equitable salary not conglomorated with expensive extras which are not reflected in the salary schedule; attention to special costly services.

Ronald Marren:
At present, I cannot think of any.

Jane Powell:
We are now going through economy cuts in our budget for the coming year. There will be many ramifications to these cuts that only time will tell their affects. If we can work together as a unit to change legislation for the benefit of our district and equally deprived districts there will be no further need for cuts, but we can escalate programs for education.

Robert Runneals:
Economies could be realized by making more efficient use of existing facilities on a 12-month-a-year basis on quarterly scheduling.

Edward Solomon:
In 1969-70 the district will be required to reduce its budget 15 percent. This reduction will affect quality education. All items not affecting quality education have been previously cut by our board the past two years.

QUESTION 4 — What are your views on unification?

James Ayers:
I feel that efficient operation can be achieved by a measure of unification. However, unification carried to a point where depersonalization takes place causes more problems than it solves.

Russell Chiosso:
I favor unification in the interest of continuity of education for our students, and for possible economies to be gained.

Elio Fontana:
The Jefferson High School District has endorsed unification. Other areas without our district have not. Unification may be expensive. (Teachers' salaries will have to be identical in all areas, requiring a large budget increase.) All areas assume the other's obligation, which also is expensive. It would not reduce personnel. Quality education may be an advantage to unification.

Ronald Marren:
I favor it 100 per cent. It would save the public in tax money and simplify administrative and curriculum planning.

Jane Powell:
Unification in theory is excellent. To me this is a pragmatic point of view. It is impractical to believe that many small unities would give up their local control, especially when the only evident plans have been for small districts to unify with other small districts.

Robert Runneals:
I would have to be better informed than I am at the present time to answer this question.

Edward Solomon:
I believe in unification, but the proposed district should be of sufficient size and have a sound financial basis. A possible combination for northern San Mateo County would be the unification of territories currently covering Jefferson Union High School, districts.

Jeff's Work Experience Program

The supervisors and staff members of the Work Experience Program in the high schools of San Mateo County deserve a special salute.

Their activities and their programs move the schools closer to an ideal set for them by an official of the Council for Basic Education: (the purpose of education) "is to stir young minds to learn about and think about the history of man and his world."

FOR EXAMPLE consider the report of Michael Orlich, Supervisor of Work Experience Education in the Jefferson Union High School District. During the 1967-68 school year papers were processed for 330 students who were regularly employed. These students worked a total of 177,300 hours on 84 different kind of jobs. Many of these students began their work during school hours and received school credit for the things they learned while working. The average released time was two periods per student.

The employer of each student had to meet the established criteria for school credit. Each was required to supervise the students carefully and evaluate their performance. Each employer was contacted at the work station at least four times during the year.

The policies of the Work Experience Education Staff required that each student be employed on a job which is deemed to have significant educational value under a vocational, general, or exploratory program. Jobs of questionable education value were not approved for credit.

THE REPORT indicates that students worked as bakery helpers, engineering assistants, meat cutters, TV apprentices, receptionists, teachers aides, furniture salesmen, typists, key-punch operators, clerks, cooks, auto mechanic apprentices, tellers, library aides and many others.

As the report went to press 800 student applications were pending. During the year more than 2,000 students were interviewed.

The Work Experience Education staff provided job promotion, counseling of students, selection and referral of students, verification — to determine which students were accepted by employers and why others were rejected.

Reports for the fall semester indicate that the program for 1968-69 is going to be even more successful.

As part of its program the Work Experience Education staff interviews and screens students for Christmas and summer employment and works with the Neighborhood Youth Program.

In 1968 a total of 261 students were given Christmas employment.

The Work Experience Education staff spends many hours with the Neighborhood Youth Corp program and with special education students, and students who are occassional workers.

DURING 1967-68, the staff made sixty-five special visits concerning special adjustment cases or regarding students.

Through the cooperation of Gil Toibin, instructor and Lester Toy, student, from the Jefferson High School Photography department, a series of color slides were taken showing students working in the Work Experience Program.

Surely this program is fulfilling the criteria mentioned by John F. Kennedy in his message to Congress that asked for funds "to invest in human beings."

Endurance Test

Remember the good old uncomplicated days when you went into the theater knowing all the endings would be happy, all the bad guys would get punished and all the adventure stories were only make believe?

They were fun, in their own limited way. You might have stiffened in your seat, bit a nail or two, but the plots at least took your mind off the troubles of the outside world.

Now comes adventure films of a new genre: violence until you're repulsed by the unnecessary brutality and dare-deviltry so incredible it makes Tarzan, Superman and James Bond look like sissies.

☆ ☆ ☆

"WHERE EAGLES DARE" IS A REAL ENDURANCE TEST. How long can you sit through it without bursting into laughter. How long does it take the unbelievable bloodbath of mass killings to turn that laughter into a gasp for air.

If the constant barrage of machine-gun fire, or exploding hand grenades doesn't drive one up into the lobby for relief, the wasted talents of Richard Burton (formerly known for his integrity as an actor) and the stereotyped image of Clint Eastwood (wholesale assassin of the "Dollar" films) will turn you off with their histrionics.

A little of this joke would have gone a long way. Under Brian Hutton's direction, there is no letup to the terrorist tactics, the repetitious killing, the cliffhanging exploits of as mixed a bag of spies as ever invaded the screen. Up to the final scene, long after their mission has been accomplished (following total annihiliation of the entire German army camp at the hands of two men and two women) they add still another macabre touch of injustice.

M-G-M president Louis Polk labels it a "spo... But there isn't a laugh in it, nor anything to indica... humor. The plot gets so thick with confusion, so sticky with double agents, that even the actors can't keep it straight.

It is an enthralling picture, without half the merit of "Guns of Navarone" (by the same author). But it lacks style, lacks credibility, lacks form. Escapist cinema is one thing but "Eagles" pounds every aspect of modern brutality into the senses and breeds a tolerance that is dangerous.

What it doesn't lack is suspense. But it's hardly enough to earn the expensive, lavishly photographed war episode other than a passing comparison to "Dirty Dozen" which wasn't half so idiotic or brutal.

☆ ☆ ☆

THE MOST EXCITING ACTION TAKES PLACE IN MID-AIR aboard a cable car that links the German ground troops with the Nazi stronghold inside a castle chiseled from the side of a Bavarian Alp. Not only do our superhuman heroes get inside, but they carry an arsenal and measure of luck that should have won us World War II in 24 hours. Every possible obstacle, every danger and threat is assuaged in a matter of minutes. They know the impossible and accomplish it, all without a scratch.

Bravo Hollywood. You've gone over the edge. Bring back Charlie Chan, Boston Blackie and The Thin Man. I've had it!

FRANK LAPIERRE

(Post Columnist)

A Mother's Reply

(Last week, Frank LaPierre wrote of his displeasure over the refusal of a black student to say the Pledge of Allegiance. The mother of this girl has been granted this week's column space in which to express her views and to explain the actions of not only her daughter, but her's as well. The Mother asked her name be withheld: It is.—Editor.)

In answer to Frank LaPierre's "Student Silent" article, first I would like to say if Mr. LaPierre were reciting the pledge with real thought and meaning he would not have been able to observe so carefully the action of the black female student who was standing on the platform, and her mother who was standing on the far left of the chambers. He like most people simply recite the pledge out of habit, not really thinking about the content.

I do hope that the people that were saddened and angered by our actions will honestly search their hearts and give real thought to the wording of the pledge and hopefully try to make these words become a reality.

It is truly disgusting the way some caucasians can get whipped out of shape by a trivial gesture, but yet ignore the paramount problem in America today, the black-white racial problem. It is also interesting to note how patriotic one can become for five or six seconds, and forget this patriotism in his everyday living.

I think that it is in extremely bad taste that the city council, the Jefferson Elementary School Board, the Jefferson High School Board and the various Commissions are not truly representative of the multi-racial community that is prevalent here in Daly City. However, there is very little if any reference to this by newspaper columnists.

Another thing—at one time or another, everyone claims to know what discrimination is all about and that they understand the problem completely. If this is so, why is there not equality for all people? Why is there so much racial chaos? Why is there still need for organizations such as the FEPC, San Mateo County Human Relations Commission, CITY, American Civil Liberties Union, NAACP, and other such groups?

If there is "liberty and justice for all," and if we are truly living as "one nation under God, indivisible," these agencies and organizations would be non-existant.

My daughter and I reserve the right to refrain from pledging allegiance to the flag until this pledge becomes a reality.

By the way, why are there no black newspaper reporters or columnists on the staff of this newspaper?

☆ ☆ ☆

The American flag is located to the far right of the mayor's bench in the city hall—thus, the audience faces either straight ahead (if you are seated on the left side of the hall); and as the rows arch to the right side of the chambers, the audience must turn gradually to face the flag (that is IF they want to pledge allegiance). From my seat I had, out of necessity, to look past the student staff seated on a slightly raised platform in order to look at the flag. Out of the corner of my baby green eyes I spotted the writer—Frank LaPierre.

Kiss the Umpire

Brace yourselves, men. The sex revolution in professional sports isn't stopping with an occasional horse race. Already one track is headlining all-girl races, the winner to face the champion of an all-male contest.

The next sport to be invaded may be baseball. It will, if Mrs. Bernice Gera wins the complaint she has filed with the New York State Human Rights Commission, claiming sex discrimination. Mrs. Gera wants to be a baseball umpire.

This unlikely pursuit could very well radically change the sport. How would the spectators — or the players themselves — react to a decision with which they disagreed if it was made by a lady umpire? It could take all the fun out of the whole thing.

LORENE BEASLEY

The Required Disclosures

The following questions are part of a series of explanatory questions and answers developed by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System to foster better understanding of the Truth in Lending law.

1—Is a different set of disclosures required for credit other than open end?

Yes. The disclosures are spelled out in the Truth in Lending regulation. A good example of this type of credit is a loan from a bank to buy an automobile. Another is credit by a store to buy a big ticket item such as a washing machine or TV set. In all cases, the loan or credit sale is for a fixed period of time and the amount and number of payments is specified as well as the due date of each payment.

2—What other disclosures must be made?

The customer must be told: the date of the transaction or, if different, the date which the finance charges begin to accrue; the number, amount and due dates of the payments; the sum of these payments, except in the case of a first mortgage to finance purchase of a dwelling; the amount or method of computing any default, delinquency or similar late payment charges;

A description of any security interest to be acquired by the creditor; the method of computing any penalty charge for early repayment of the credit, plus a statement outlining the charges which may be deducted from any rebate or refund.

On credit other than open-end credit, the annual percentage rate need not be stated if the finance charge is $5 or less and applies to credit of $75 or less; or if the finance charge is $7.50 or less and applies to credit exceeding $75.

3—Is real estate covered by Truth in Lending?

Yes, real estate credit to individuals in any amount is subject to Truth in Lending disclosures.

4—What special provisions apply to real estate credit?

There is no need to disclose the total dollar amount of the finance charge on first mortgages to purchase dwellings. The customer in some cases has the right to cancel a credit arrangement within three business days if his residence is offered as collateral for credit.

Sharp Split on Transit Plan as Election Nears

be "acceptable" to the electorate.

The capital cost of the bus system proposal has been estimated by consultants at $20 million, with a projected operating deficit of $2 million a year. The cost for the ultimate plan, which includes grade separations at all street crossings, has been estimated at $577 million. The Governmental Research Council has estimated that, based upon the expectation that $200 million in state and federal grants would be received, a property tax rate of 14 cents per $100 of assessed value would be needed to finance Plan B and a 43-cent rate for Plan D.

Voting for the Plan B bus proposal were Daniel Minto and three members of the County Board of Supervisors who serve as West Bay directors, William M. Werder, James V. Fitzgerald and Jean Fassler. Siding with Lawson on the Plan D concept were Micheal DeBernardi and Howard Looney.

Werder, who spearheaded the Plan B contingent, suggested that it be made clear to the voters that the board "envisions" or "intends" that Plans C and D would be implemented, in stages, some time in the future. That, however, he pointed out, would require additional elections to amend the master plan. His motion, adopted by the 4 to 3 vote, simply stated that Plan B be put on the ballot.

Mrs. Fassler, although she voted with Werder, had suggested that the ballot measure be put another way — that the Plan D features be approved as a general transit plan with the proviso that only the first stage bus system be implemented at this time. Fitzgerald declared that train systems are not flexible enough and asserted that the line from San Bruno to Santa Clara Coucny would merely duplicate the existing SP service.

Werder said Plan B would be "logical" at this time because of uncertainties over how rail transit would tie into the BART system and Santa Clara County.

"I don't see how you can connect logic with Plan B," Lawson said testily. "I would feel utterly ridiculous if this board came out now, after five years of study and after spending more than one million dollars, and recommended a bus plan. Why, the Board of Supervisors could put in a bus system, starting tomorrow, if they wanted to."

Werder commented that putting Plan B on the ballot would be "getting a foot in the door."

"If you go for Plan B," Looney warned, "that's all you will ever get in the door."

Looney predicted that some regional agency will step in and force the BART system on San Mateo County unless the county acts on its own.

"I don't see how you can possibly go to the voters with Plan B and call it a master plan when by its very nature it is not a master plan," Looney told the members of the Werder bloc.

Crestmoor Science Projects in 'Fair'

ciety members and directors was a lack of adequate time to devote to research and discussion, Person said.

This led to formation of the special science research class, and the pilot program which began last year.

Students in the class are selected on the basis of "ability and motivation," and students and teachers involved in the project work together "by mutual agreement," he said.

"The students and teachers in the program assist each other," Person said. "The youngsters don't simply sit in class and listen to lectures."

Though the students receive credit for only the one hour-per day spent in class, they devote a great amount of out-of-class time to their projects, he said.

In addition to the four students receiving class credit under the program, three other members of the Science Society are working on the projects to be entered in the California Academy of Sciences fair.

Ernst Thompson, a senior who plans to pursue a career in physics, is working on the air pressure-sound wave relationship project.

"I have done computer programming to find theoretical values of intensity, and I am now comparing these results to experimental values to see if there are differences, and, if there are, why," Thompson said matter-of-factly.

He has received a scholarship to Washington University in Missouri, and will enroll as a physics major next fall.

Jim D'Aoust, builder of the "electro-magnetic ion pump" to be entered in the fair, has received a cash grant from the San Mateo County Heart Association to aid in his research.

"The device, in essence, involves using electric and magnetic fields to propel ions and move a solution through a tube," Jim explained.

With the device, it is possible to measure the concentration of ions in a given solution and other factors, he said.

He is investigating the possibility of practical application of the device in a number of areas.

Dan Quickert has constructed the small computer system and memory core which will be on exhibit, and Rick Del Carlo is performing the intricate sugar fermentation experiments.

In additon to Person, Crestmoor science teachers John Harlen and Frank Chambers are involved in the pilot program.

Chambers, a chemistry teacher, also serves as sponsor of the Science Society.

Judging of the Science Fair entries will be April 8 and 9, and the winners will have been designated when the fair is opened to the public April 12, Person said.

School Girl Is Assaulted

A tiny 12-year-old girl was dragged into a wooded area near Daly City on Tuesday where she was molested and raped by a 175-pound man.

The child told investigators she was walking past the San Francisco Golf Club course on her way to school on Brotherhood Way when the man forced her into the heavily wooded grounds about 8:30 a.m.

After the suspect released the child she made her way to the Catholic school where she told one of the nuns about the incident. The sister immediately called police.

The victim was being treated at Central Emergency Hospital, according to a police department spokesman.

North County and San Francisco police sent out an all-points bulletin for the suspect described as a male Negro adult, 20 years old, 175 pounds, 5 feet 7 inches, sporting a small goatee, black sweatshirt.

Police believe the suspect fled the scene on foot after raping the girl.
